Thread: How many of you play RuneScape or RSPS?

NoSuchAgency - December 9, 2020, 10:51 pm

I'd post this in the gaming section but it's dead as fuck.

I was wondering if anyone on here still played OSRS (Maybe rs3? I guess?) or RSPS?

I haven't really played in awhile but my ironman still has like 200 days of membership and I feel like I'm wasting it so I am thinking about starting again.

I've played RS most of my life when I was a kid, but I grew out of it for the most part, since I don't have the time to grind anymore, anyways, what about you guys?

Luv223x - December 9, 2020, 10:52 pm

Same here, runescape is and was the shit, I have like a 10 year cape on my main.

My first account would probably qualify for the 10 yr cape, infact I'm gonna go look.

I lost access to mine, I can't get my email.

I remember it, it was sic, the emote.

Nima304 - December 10, 2020, 2:16 am

I played RuneScape for years, then got into RSPS and ran a server for a while during the golden years of the game. I've tried to get back into it but it's just not a good game in 2020.

Lyralei - December 10, 2020, 7:25 pm

I don't, I missed the opportunity for this when it was crazy huge, I have friends that made so much money from this game.

Doom - December 10, 2020, 7:46 pm

Im maxed on OSRS, I still play pretty much everyday but always 100% afk while I'm playing other games.

Crypt - December 10, 2020, 7:47 pm

Played a RSPS quite a bit but recently quit because I spend way too much time on it. Have to focus on college and coding.

Yeah man I feel you on that, I was really active in the RS and RSPS scene around 2012 or so. It's seems like a dying breed right now, but who knows maybe with the right innovation more people could start playing. I mean the possibilities with an RSPS are pretty much endless. Just up to the talent of the one developing it.

I definitely know some people who have become rich from RuneScape. Back in the day when account security wasn't as good. Also when osrs first came out, oh man. I remember $10/m gold. It was amazing to profit off of. But looking at the price of gold now actually makes me sad.

That's awesome man, I've never been able to bring myself to maxing, I have no 99s on my ironman, and on my old rs3 account it has like 3. I don't remember how much it has on osrs. I mainly play on the ironman nowadays. I've been slowly grinding out agility. I'm at like 73 now. I'd like to keep going till I can overcome all the obstacles. Because that's just helpful.

I logged on RS3 just the other day, and it literally blew me away. But not really in a good way? The RS3 game has become a completely different game by far. I was thinking about giving it a shot, but then I remembered when EOC came out and that's why I still only play osrs.

I don't play nearly as much anymore, but it's fun to waste time and level up a little. I have no friends on there anymore either so not many reasons to hop on anymore.

Telstra - December 11, 2020, 12:21 am

I do not play runescape I could never understand the hype of it to be honest.

Saix the Berserker - December 11, 2020, 12:46 am

Got my account banned way back for botting, RS3 just doesn't feel the same to me, while osrs just feels too outdated for my tastes at this point to get back into it, was definitely one of the greats of its time though.

Marxist - December 11, 2020, 7:33 am

I play a HCIM on rs3. I enjoy it.

I've maxed my main but I enjoy my HCIM much more.

Dann. - December 11, 2020, 7:35 am

Got a maxed account om RS3 and OSRS so I resorted to RSPS's for more unique content.

cybr - December 11, 2020, 7:36 am i just started playing my OSRS account again about a month ago and now i hate my life

Excellent start! It will only get better, trust me!?

Ye I play, I got maxed acc, a pure, and a med level currently

Her Goblin - December 11, 2020, 9:10 am

I have a near maxed RS3 ironman (thanks to archaeology). I just started playing OSRS again though and just recently got the stats for Zulrah, but have been playing mainly Trailblazer in attempt to get to Raids to practice before I get there on mainscape.

Right now I'm just focusing on Python and then will probably go into Java next.

Mafty Navue Erin - December 11, 2020, 12:40 pm

I used to play for the longest time but nowadays I'm dedicating myself to World of Warcraft.

VEESZAC - December 11, 2020, 1:24 pm

I still actively play OSRS on my main. Waiting for group ironmeme to come out.

Can get it unbanned easily now, just send in an appeal they are accepting almost all.

I've appealed several times in the past, so unless something just happened in the past year or so I doubt it would work, pretty sure before they didn't even look at the appeal

Splixyy - December 13, 2020, 7:23 am

I still play Old School Runescape.

I find it a really great game, I reccomend getting into it!

Dionysius - December 13, 2020, 3:27 pm

I played daily up until last month. I was an idiot and decided to bot on my Ironman account, I got from 87 crafting to 93 within a week, and then they hit me with the banhammer. I've wanted to start a new account but can't bring myself to.

Tjm - December 13, 2020, 4:41 pm

Currently playing OSRS now. Been playing more casually now as of the last few months. Was bug hunting for awhile and was successful. Won't state the bug but it got patched after 2 weeks, found out a new method and that was patched within 12 hours of discovery after a game engine update the next morning. I still goof around and find stuff but now I'm leveled enough to where I don't need a ban ?

can relate. Quit this game to get my shit together. This is the most addicting game I've ever played. It drains you mentally too.

You can never fully quit, you only take long breaks. ? I played heavy from 2005-2010, then started again last year heavy. The nostalgia is what's addicting about it for me.

Yeah, feel you. This game is cancer literally. You quit, but you come back. I really hope I flipped the page, I haven't played it for almost 6months now. Whenever I start playing this game, my life goes downhill & kills my productivity & social life. No kidding I was play 17hours per day at one point & I was working, that's how addicted I was lmao.

Yeah been there lol. Right now I'm around 5-6hrs on a day off, maybe an hr on days I work. Definitely sucks a log with all the gambling bots, scam bots, just toxic. I just grind and do my own thing. When I get bored I just do other things.

Ahah Runescape transforms you into a working machine. I swear if we worked irl, we'd be filthy rich.

Didn't notice the reply haha. Yeah man grinding in a game vs irl...Use to be able to go hardcore, now it's in waves. Usually either skilling, clue runs or bug finding. Use to be more PVE/PVP but play mobile just because it's convenient, too sketched out to do risky stuff in case the app crashes haha.

HappyCEO - December 26, 2020, 7:13 am

Yes me and 2 buddies play alot, my bud quit his main and started on HCIM so I did the same, now I'm grinding the leagues and then I will start on the hcim and the main, also going to start raiding nectar - December 26, 2020, 9:59 am

ive never played any type of Runescape, never looked interesting to me so i never tried them

St. Jiberish - December 28, 2020, 5:01 pm

OSRS is still my fucking lifeline; f.
