Thread: I made this shit happen... with God on my side

Blessing - December 12, 2020, 11:53 am

People are out to get me. This comes natural with fame and money. Jealousy and envy are ripe.

The sad thing is all these people would've had a far better life if they weren't controlled by the devil.

Call me a dosser if you want... I know I worked for this. I gave up everything for this life.

There's nothing particularly "honourable" about you people anyway.

Anyone can live the life you live...

If you wanna talk to me about work, I worked harder than you.

The hustle has been with me ever since I learned I could hustle. (RAT's and whatnot)

And as I said, anyone can live the life you people live. You go to work. Woopedy doo. Some of us chase dreams.

Anyone can get in the mindset you're in. You're in a mindset that's already been. You are unoriginal and gay.

I suggest you learn about the NEW me. Someone that has God on my side. Someone more powerful, intelligent and richer by far and I always will be.

These posers out here because they have insecurities. Try being nice, it might get you far. You act as a hard man because you need to. That's how your shitty horrible life has adapted you. Into a shitty horrible person.

I hope that I make new friends here on HackForums and the police/stalkers/obsessive losers read this. Rant over.

I am frightened by the number of "users - messiahs" coming to this forum with their theories which suddenly reminded me that they must save the world and do not know why they start from this place??

I'm intrigued if there are others like myself, although I highly doubt it.

I am happy you are on the path g

What is going on, this right here absolutely killed me.?

However, you're taking up useless space with this thread, begone.

Also, you claim you're more honorable and work harder than everyone here and that there's a new you. Then you also have this up?

I'm not worked up I thought it was really funny how ridiculous people are, to be honest. So thus I felt the need to comment.

Lack of life direction + lack of friends can lead a person to a dark place. Sadly he wants to share that dark place with us. I hope we learn to ignore him as any attention negative or positive or neutral is just what he craves from us here.

I know right! Every other post is God related by someone who has a (- Popularity) seems like the same person keeps opening a new account

Thats quite the inflated ego you got there buddy. If I were you I'd take it easy. Nobody is higher than anybody, we're all human beings, we're all equal, we're all the same on the inside. God doesn't favor one person over the other. Being rich doesn't make you better than the poor. You are the same as everybody else. A human. There is no greater than or less than. Thinking you're better than us or anybody else for that matter is nothing but an inflated ego. Take it easy, eat some mushrooms and tone down that ego of yours. Blessed be.

High quality post +rep

I wanna try shrooms. I agree with you to a certain extent. All humans are equal... but some are greater than others. Some show this to God for approval, some show it because it's just how they are.

My motto is "Be Blessed"

Possibly. Computers (being on them all day everyday) seems to have given me some mental disabilities, or some would see it as such. However, I believe I have been given ability. Not only from computers, but from God.

You may know a certain type well, but me, you cannot fathom.

That's not what they diagnosed you with when the sectioned you though now is it.?

I'm not trying to be mean. I'm respectful of neurological difference and mental health issues generally but what you're doing right now doesn't seem good for you.

Mostly your twitter posts you linked us to (when you were on another one of your accounts) concerned me because some of those appeared to threaten violence against people.
