Thread: Golden Egg - Lottery or attempt euthanasia? | now on lottery

Lrrr - December 12, 2020, 4:56 pm

What should I do with this golden egg? I had a blue I tried to get euthanasia award with but Prepper murdered me with extreme prejudice. Should I try it with the Golden egg or just auction it off?

Edit:

I put it up for lottery

Just auction it off bro, it's worth some bytes.

Lyralei - December 12, 2020, 4:59 pm

I guess it's a couple of thousand bytes or a potentially godly hackuman.

Forensic - December 12, 2020, 4:59 pm

Prolly could get 8k bytes in an auction

A + - December 12, 2020, 5:03 pm

I would sell that shit lol

Lyralei - December 12, 2020, 5:05 pm

Too many peoples are tossing that golden egg like a hot potato, it's kind of sad, maybe an extremely powerful hackuman is living inside it.

Yes but it sucks when you get killed at level 30 after you can't hide by level 100s

Of Xerotic added invisibility for level 40-50 it would be slightly easier but honestly once you reach 30 you're bound to get chewed up by the big boys

Should flip it and resell for double bud.

What should I make the ticket price and max entries? I was thinking 60 byte entry and 1000 tickets

Chief - December 12, 2020, 7:18 pm

Give it to me as a Christmas present

Is it possible to negotiate with a buyer and then just set the ticket price to that amount. Say 6k bytes is what they'll pay, set that price per entry, one ticket max, one day lottery. I just rejoined after years so everything is very new to me, just curious if something like that would possibly work, assuming the entry price is extremely high.

I mean maybe but then you end up with the potential for others to buy a single ticket at that price

Yeah true, still a risk involved...It would be nice to have the option to direct sell. Not even sure what the best way to list then price/entry amount wise, just been guessing with mine. I'm definitely jealous though. ?

Could you not just make it overpriced then refund the person the bytes in a donation?

Actually yea...thats a really good way to do it. You just won 50 bytes. It still only works if they have enough bytes to cover the overprice

ColdCypher - December 20, 2020, 2:21 am

Euthanasia for the win! Btw how often does one acquire the elusive golden eggs in the forums?

It was a joke relax, they cost so much bytes that's half the reason I auctioned. The blue one costs me over 4 thousand bytes and the gold will cost at least 10k bytes to raise and feed
