Just give this a listen all the way through for me :)

Forensic - December 13, 2020, 8:25 am

I mean the chorus is catchy

Features - December 13, 2020, 8:28 am

This was strangely entertaining.

MarvinMalware - December 13, 2020, 8:38 am

I wasn't expecting much from this, but it's definitely more than expected.? It's unique for sure.

L0RE - December 13, 2020, 8:46 am

I respect Lowkey for making songs like these but his old grime songs were so much better.

His song about his brother is the only song to ever make me tear up

Top 1 Selected, Who Said I Can't Do Grime?

Pretty much every song he's ever made has been insane. I'm so glad he came back and so glad people still support him.

Yeah he's such a solid artist. Not really a fan of his political songs - I respect the awareness but it's not a song you listen to more than once

It's a shame to see these wannabe people out there making uneducated shit like this for clout .

Extraordinarily Superior - December 13, 2020, 2:44 pm

This is some of the shittiest rap music I have heard.

I think you need to educate yourself on who Lowkey is my friend. He's actually perhaps one of the most intelligent people in the UK who does talks and lectures all around the UK. Do some research into who he is :)

"He's actually perhaps one of the most intelligent people in the UK"

Well looks like you burnt up that attempt.

Can you give me one quote from that entire video that in some way proves he's even somewhat intelligent. I saw a bunch of BS at the beginning such as capitalism alienates people.

I don't need to prove anything dude, I don't see why you're being so defensive.

One of Britains best Mathematicians (Akala, also a rapper) acknowledges his intelligence and how much wisdom he has. Just research into these people and you'll see for yourself, it's not for me to tell you who's intelligent and who's not.

Lindros - December 13, 2020, 3:55 pm

Shit song, fuck him for advocating more people jumping over the border.

I'm sorry WHAT? "One of Britains best Mathematicians (Akala, also a rapper)"

Incorrect statement. Even his fucking Wikipedia says:

"was in the top 1 per cent of GCSEs in the country and took maths a year early."

That's 52,000 other people in that 1%. Not fucking difficult. 52,000 PER YEAR IN THAT 1%! EVERY YEAR THERE ARE 52,000 PEOPLE ALONE.

Not only that but we have smarter people here on HF who self suck and complain all day.

Shit I did maths 4 years early, does that make me a goddam genius? No.

That video you posted is literally him talking a bunch of BS and then when he's correct it's literally a newspaper/tabletop issue - regarding the flammable cladding in buildings.

Yes, I watched the entire fucking thing - You idolize this guy and think he's intelligent so you'll eat up his misinformed views and opinions in the original YT music you posted.

I'll say that for anyone - Even someone actually intelligent. It doesn't mean they can't be wrong. Open your damn mind.

It's not wise to envy people you have never even met, and on the contrary -- have never even spoken to.

A newspaper issue? I'm sorry have you heard about Grenfell? You call that a newspaper issue?? I never said he can't be wrong, I'm just merely pointing out you saying he's talking out his ass is incorrect, everything he says is fact based.

Also; how is the statement about Akala false? He took his GCSE's early and also attended The Royal Institution for a Maths Masterclass. Look it's not my fault you can't accept facts. Arguing with me isn't going to solve anything, doing your research will.

Yes I've heard about Grenfell are you serious? I'm not even in the UK. Yes it's a newspaper issue - everyone and anyone who pays slight attention has a fucking opinion on it.

Taking your GCSEs early is extremely common and attending the royal institute is like attending yale or Harvard. It means absolutely nothing.

Saying either one of them is even in the top 1 million people in the UK is a joke.

I been a fan of Lowkey since I heard his "Fire in the booth" years back. Great share. :}
