Would be simple if people just read. There are only two numbers left and this thread is regularly updated. No need to roll prematurely.

account_ - December 28, 2020, 1:06 pm

LoremIpsum as edited his post.

The available number:
18

Restbite - December 28, 2020, 1:57 pm

I think it's pretty simple pick a number between one and 50 @guardis if that means you need to check what numbers aren't taken for a chance to win it's pretty simple just like you SIMPLE. Anyway if guys could let me know when all 50 are taken I'd appreciate it been a bit busy over Christmas haven't been reading all notifications thanks boys! And good luck to everyone who has entered I'm sure this will end tonight so good luck!

Guardis - December 28, 2020, 2:13 pm

For example Jordana Brewster choosed 2 numbers.. others choosed already taken numbers. That's why I'm saying it's "too hard" for HF users xD. Not sure if you saw, but I have chosen a unique number, so that's not a problem for me, just for others. But they didn't realized it yet. Restbite

A simple contest is: post to enter, your # will be your entry number. Then it would be ended a week ago.

Restbite - December 28, 2020, 5:31 pm

Well it wouldn't be ended a week ago would it because we didn't have 50 numbers bro.. it's pretty simple
