Thread: Need Beta Testers

SIM-4903657 - December 19, 2020, 12:35 am

Hello everyone,

First post here so go easy

I am coding a key logger that looks innocent as a script kiddie program, the program is in beta and stopped developing it due to lack of testers i required.

if anyone is interested in getting a beta version of my logger, send me a message and I'll send it to you, once tested, provide feedback on what feature's and improvements you want to see.

the logger will be soon allow you to lock and turn it into a ransomware. However as said, testers needed otherwise i'll delete my scripts and start a different project.

Email me on: calvinsmith2131@gmail.com for further details

Regards,
HiddenCoder.

Lmao, you are this angry to go onto my profile in order to find my original post?

How sad, please keep breaking rules, lets see how hard the hammer will hit your head back to the right place.

This post is over a year old, SIM-4903657 are you still looking for beta testers?
