Thread: Degenrate drunk neighbour banging on my walls

k8z - December 21, 2020, 7:33 pm

He and his girl are always yelling. Gets on the piss and yells at people at the pub next door. He bangs on my walls and stomps on the floor. Our walls are connected so it's very loud. I've tried ignoring him for months since I've moved in but can no longer stand it. One time I asked him to stop banging on my wall and then only banged louder. I was cleaning my bathroom at 11am on a Sunday... I waited thought that was a respectable time to use my laundry sink. Bangs. Yesterday night he was banging so loud I finally threatened to call the cops and he stopped. But this morning he's back at it again. He's a drunk, aggressive derelict old man beating on his wife and disturbing my peace. Cops can't do shit, landlord neither. He's aware he can bang on my walls and there's nothing anyone can do to stop it. I really don't want to stoop to his level but at this point that's the only option I have. Soooo anyone have good suggestions on how to troll him?

Lol I don't wanna disturb my other neighbors so can't play music. It'd be golden if I knew his IP or could control his Bluetooth speaker. As for banging, he'll just bang back harder. I'm thinking ass spray, bird food all over his stairs and landing. Bringing his bins in before they get emptied.. need more are any of the vents connected? ass spray is a awesome one, doesn't work that great outside nor do you want to be caught spraying his stuff.

you don't want it to be blatant that it's you. I think a random super loud sound at 4-5AM like house shaking loud for a split second should do the trick.

jecoylecoy - December 21, 2020, 10:03 pm

Transfer to another apartment if the landlord allowed such behavior.

Haaks - December 21, 2020, 10:32 pm

Go sleep over at a friend for a few days. And place a subwoofer facing your wall. Wich will play hard music when it will detect noice.

? fart spray his door

Juoku - December 21, 2020, 11:43 pm

So you can either do the "Scott" which is murder his parents, make chili out of them and make him eat it, then tell him it's his parents.

OR, for actual ideas, you can glue stuff to his house, glue his bins so they won't open, take dog shit and rub it all over his door handle / steps, you can paint random shit on his house, puncture his tires, spray paint his car, put nails everywhere on his property (this also works with Lego), start dating his daughter, get her pregnant and leave, dig up a grave and bury the bones in his backyard, make sure he touches the shovel, call the cops.

If this guy beats his wife, you can always report it to the social services or other similar institution. I know that the police do nothing in such cases, but believe me, if a public utility reports the matter to the police, they will not be able to ignore it and will have to intervene. Just call, you can do it anonymously if you don't want to be involved. I hope it helps you

I would move out asap. Can't stand obnoxious neighbors.

Nah mate, nah mate, nah mate this is the way to ending up in a true crime movie/documentary where he kills you. Just tell the landlord that you're giving notice if he doesn't do something and that no one else will want to live there either. Just start looking for somewhere else. Why stay?

Also why can't the cops do anything. I know they can be useless. But you should report him beating his wife. And yeah if there are other social services where you live that you can actually report wife beating too call them as well.

Or you just call the police lol, isn't there a "rule" that states that you cant cause noise complaints after an x time?

if the police don't want to do anything, I invite you to play their game and stay strong

48 hours of hard music, the sound blows up, banging on the walls and inviting people to calm him down

L1ON - December 27, 2020, 2:26 am

For every bang on the wall that you hear, he gets a bang to the face, I'm sure he would get the message.

Send him a makeshift grenade that looks like a spice container or something that has a pullstring for a pin.

His girl is a little fat bitch who stands in front him like a shield. Some cunts just need a god damn bullet.

I'm a small girl and he's cool with smacking bitches so it doesn't matter him what I say nor do. I grabbed his throat a little but this man could not get a message if you hammered it into his dome. It made me cry a bit cos I'm emotional and don't feel secure but it also sends me in a god damn rage. I understand how easy it would be to kill a pathetic cunt like this. If I was a man I am sure this cunt would be far removed. I brought up him beating on girls and his reply was if I wanted to you'd be over the rail. Even after the threats I considered sending a peace offering but it won't matter. This cunt is so god damn ignorant I'm gonna have to move.

These people are twice my age mind you. There is nothing getting though.

Man this really sucks OP. I've lived beside/below some pretty terrible neighbors in my life, so I certainly feel your pain.

I'm not sure if the rules are the same where you are in the world, but we have certain forms that can be filled out by the landlord in such situations. If he/she (landlord) is willing to work with you, a legal form can be submitted to the local authority (in our case it is called the Landlord Tenant Board (LTB). The form is a N5 - Notice to End your Tenancy For Interfering with Others, Damage or Overcrowding.

Form here:

<https://tribunalsontario.ca/documents/ltb/Notices%20of%20Termination%20&%20Instructions/N5.pdf>

Basically this can be submitted when written complaints are given to the landlord regarding the bad tenant(s). This form, along with the complaint letters (as detailed as possible - date/times, types of noise/actions, etc), would be submitted to the Tribunal to have the tenant(s) evicted.

Yes, the process can sometimes be a pain, and a bit long.....but it does work. I was a landlord for 10 years and have evicted many bad tenants.

Not worth fighting with these kinds of low life. Wipe your hands, get a new apartment & move on.

Yeah, as much as a pain my suggestion above is.....I should have added that I only advise fighting them legally IF you want to stay living in that place, or cannot move for whatever reason. Of course, if moving is an option right now, then do that.

when you leave your apartment for an hour or so play a knocking loop from youtube that sounds like someone knocking on his door and window loud enough to hear it through his wall, that ought to piss him off.
