Thread: SCAM REPORT AGAINST Hatchet / UID 3613097

Leberace12 - December 21, 2020, 9:01 pm

Put simple,

I started a thread this one: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6128423>

He pmed me: <https://i.imgur.com/9g3GjZB.png>

I then added the guy he recommended and we talked and talked, so i told him i will buy 1k bots for 80 usd for a start then buy more. So paid him in btc and he blocked me after he wrote i will send bots now.

10 sec later he started some kind of script that removed everything he sent in conversation, but i managed to get one fast screenshot when i noticed he went offline.

This is the screenshot i caught when i saw the status online above change from green to grey, you can still see his last message when he sends his btc adress before he blocke me and removed his messages:

Hatchet is sending a youtube link as shown in first screenshot, claiming its someone he bought bots from before when it is actually him scamming people.

Would appreciate if someone ban him and stay away from him.

Did you use a contract? Would highly suggest reading up on them in Help Docs

No i did not use contract because the youtube link he sent me is someone else as hatched told me in PM. On the youtube videos there are contact details jabber,discord etc so I added that guy from the youtube link like hatchet said. So I didnt do the deal with hatchet, he only told me to buy from that guy from the youtube channel, he said he bought 2k bots and he is legit and so on. This deal was outside HF but hatchet should still be banned i know that he is the same guy as the youtube channel he sent me. His language and the way of writing was the same as in his pm.
