Thread: Sunburt hack..... biggest hack against the USA

There has been a hack towards a big company called "solar winds", why this is big is cause this company works with a lot of other companies like microsoft, intel, homeland security, US treasury, etc. More like a lot of US companies.

This attack started in like march 2020 and about now has been discovered... its wild to see that.

No major geopolitical changes will occur as a result.

Nothing will happen for now, because it's almost certain that russians have a compromise against Trump. It's ridiculous how they can do anything they want and he will remain silent.
