Thread: Be careful with these spam convos

guardian - December 25, 2020, 12:34 pm

I just got a message from a user

A few days ago I got pretty much the same message from another user, but it's the same person for sure

The message contains an E-Book telling you how to get stuff on some gaming site for free, by running a TamperMonkey script

Just a quick warning for all non experienced users that might fall for this: The TamperMonkey script seems to contain some shellcode, which will probably infect your PC

Dopamine - December 25, 2020, 12:38 pm

I've also received few of theses spam message. It's kinda boring tbh

Yup, but you never know, they would not send them, if there weren't people falling for it

CodingGuru - December 25, 2020, 1:04 pm

Instantly got my suspicious so I told him to S my D.

Lyralei - December 25, 2020, 1:13 pm

I got this 2 times already, it's the scam where they change the BTC address of a certain site and say it's some kind of hack, what a hacker!

Forensic - December 25, 2020, 1:16 pm

I get them all the time, never even bother looking

Speed Test - December 25, 2020, 1:34 pm

Thanks brother I received this Convo too
They might succeed if they send it to 1000-2000 users here

Lyralei - December 25, 2020, 1:39 pm

I've seen one of their wallets before and sadly, they do get some victims.

Nuworld - December 25, 2020, 1:54 pm

I'm too HQ to receive these types of convos.
They know better to even try.

Dripstur - December 26, 2020, 7:07 am

Actually just got one for the first time yesterday and it was that exact user.

guardian - December 26, 2020, 7:09 am

Would be interesting to know, if this is an automated script or a user that really sits in front of their PC and PMs all of us manually lol

Astrogen - December 26, 2020, 5:39 pm

Received this but via pm a few months ago (forgot exactly when), there was a similar thread like this as well. Seems like they're back at it again.

siddy357 - December 26, 2020, 6:10 pm

yeah even i got the message but some one posted a thread here earlier saying that it is some kind of malware and better block the user.

1337GAMER - December 27, 2020, 7:25 am

I get these convos about once every week or two. I just ignore them.

Thanks for the heads up though!

Jinu - December 27, 2020, 7:27 am

It seems the whole community received the same message.
