Thread: Christmas Awards

Hi I think some christmas purchasable awards would be perfect and I would buy a few

Omni have you thought about adding them?

Skorp - December 25, 2020, 7:10 pm

Award suggestions are usually denied on here. But, it never hurts supporting the forum with purchasable awards given the holidays we're in now.

Maybe give us some examples of what you were thinking as awards? Anyways, merry Xmas and goodluck with your thread.

He was going to do hackuman eggs but no one submitted designs so he canceled it.

Something like this would be cool or like a simple Christmas tree award

If you had a design and a good reason people would probably be on bored.

If I am correct Omni wanted a Christmas Hackuman

Yes I saw that sad that there was not enough designs

Good idea would be doing a few different holiday awards for December such as Christmas, Hanukkah, New Years and more so people can pick their holiday and donate for an award

If you have designs or ideas suggest them to go along with the reason to be considered

I would LOVE a Christmas 2020 award, it's one hell of a year to remember and having an award for it and for xmas would be awesome in my opinion. I also think having it be an Award Goal instead of purchasable would be pretty cool, giving much more members the opportunity of getting it. (Hence Christmas gift/present)

How did no one submit one?!

Fortunate you could've shined again!
flavoral did you know about this?

Christmas isn't for another 364 days. Kinda early tbh

Yeah I was aware of it but couldn't put anything together due to being at work and just overall a lack of motivation, didn't want to submit anything I didn't personally like.

Christmas awards could be nice, might make one. Personally I've always loved the idea of a red apple instead of the green one.

Yeah and it was dismissed for lack of submissions.

Ah, gotcha. That's understandable.

And not gonna lie a red apple award has always been a cool thought, I just never could think of something that'd be a good description/reason for it; but this would definitely be one.

Yeah I saw that in someone else's post, rip.

Hopefully Fortunate or maybe another designer (cough Novica cough) could give it a try. Who knows what the future holds.
