Let me get this straight, I can purchase any of the accounts you provide with 600 AUD spending limit and 400 USD balance on it, making it a total of approx 850 - 870 USD?

No, the spendable balance will be AU$600 in it (AU threshold account)
$450 is for US threshold account.

PS. I can't edit the main post so updates may be posted in replies.

Do you provide aged google adwords accounts or already warmed up accounts instead of new ones?

This offer is specifically for new threshold accounts with $$ in them.

If you want aged and warmed up accounts with fund spent, we can provide them too.

However, the price will be higher. Thanks for your interest.

I'm currently looking for a couple of aged Adword accounts for now, and will eventually grab more if everything checks out. I can either pay a fixed price for the accounts or we can work with percentages (you'll be making more $$ this way)

Anyways lets work out a deal since I have a ton of business propositions/ideas relating to the use of Adword accounts.

We can definitely be making a ton of money together.

Ok, that we can see later.

Now I'm sending a PM with details of aged adwords accounts

Off course.

I'm not here to scam people.
Which account do you need? US or AU?

I don't know what you mean by CPA. If that was a user that got banned, I don't even know about him. I've joined HF to buy products and services (mainly). You can read my post history, all are on other seller's pages. Now I see there's a scope to sell adwords accounts here which I can provide. That's the reason I've opened this thread.

If you can't trust me for any reason that I'm not aware about. It's up to you.
Mods and admin may check my history. I have nothing to hide.

Finally, thank you for your opinion.
