Last time i tried this I got payout blocked at my second payout, is this something you give warranty for?

Absolutely. My goal is transparency. I do inform my customers that there absolutely is a risk. I have suggestions for my customers on their max payouts depending on viewership and activity.

Those who don't listen to my suggestions, those I do not hold a refund policy for. Everything has a risk, those who decide to drink bleach are doing it on their own accord.

I have no issues providing the subs to you before hand, it's the affiliate accounts I am limited on!

If you shoot me a twitch account, I'll send a few subs to it no problemo :)

{check my other posts for some vouches btw}

In my honest experience if you're not streaming and active while you're receiving these twitch subs you will more then likely get blocked from payout. Every-time I did this I made sure to be active streaming and also botting myself for views so it seems more realistic.

You aren't wrong. I highly suggest streaming even 2-3 hours every few days. Viewers does help but isn't required. It's all about speed of subs/source.

would you give me a test run with the subs i want to see if the subs will payout due to everyone telling me this is saturated and twitch no longer pays out.

I do have around 7 customers already and I'm more then willing to provide their payout proof once they are paid.

what you are forgetting is that this method doesnt work anymore. Twitch knows about fake or fraudulent subs now. They wont pay.

Now, how often were the subs coming in?

Who was your supplier? did you ever have a payout from that supplier before?

Did you stream often? how was the chat when you received the subs?

There are many questions to be asked, to simply say "THE METHOD DOESN'T WORK ANYMORE" is simply not true.

cant remember who was the supplier. it was long time ago. He was from Discord.

The live stream wasnt from me. I set it up as a fake 24/7 live stream playing in a loop.

But you dont sound confident about all this...so its risky as hell then. right?

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
