Something wonderful happened to me today.As you know I am the poorest member on hf and as I sat at the bottom of the ocean at Mariana Trench poor and my savior comes and and pulled me out from the deepest point in the ocean with 50 bytes bite.

so let's illustrate:

and then

I think that's good karma for you at the start of the new year, bro??

Juoku - January 3, 2021, 4:46 am

I believe that with enough hard work... and time in convo...

you'll become one of the richest members in known existence here on HF!

Woah, a blessing, hopefully, that charm will be enough to ward off Stanley.

How do you spend your bytes? Best advice I can give you to keep checking in daily and invest those in crypto games. Try to invest in top coins and trust me by end of this year you will be rich. Don't forget to thank me on 1st January, 2022. ?
For other stuff, keep bytes you earn by posting on threads. ??

Don't take this seriously bud,this is our convo joke.We like to have fun and share bytes with each other ,so I'm generally poor with bytes but at the same time I am rich because of wonderful friends on hf.
