Thread: So I crashed into my neighbors Mustang..

Cooligan - January 7, 2021, 4:37 pm

Happened a few nights ago. Accidentally ran into the side of it and set the alarm off, then I saw the owner looking at me through the window (probably wondering if it was his, it was).

I gave him my info and apologized, and my insurance will be covering the total $4,000 worth of damage. I think he even said he might get the car back by next week.

Thankfully no one was hurt and all I know is next time I won't be boolin' out my driveway...

@debug@ I'm actually wicked sorry about your car man, it hurts me inside to see that as a fellow car guy. :/

I figured this thread might make you laugh during a time of annoyance, I hope it did. <3

Also good to hear that it'll only be around a week or so though brotha. Hope she learns how to leave her driveway properly lol.

I told you not to drink and drive my dude. Should've let me drive that night

iRyanOG - January 7, 2021, 4:50 pm

I cant tell if your trolling me or not @cooligan .

I've seen the first thread and debug states that a lady neighbor hit his car and then you come back with this. XD

Are you really debug's neighbor or are you just trolling me?

Fellow Man - January 7, 2021, 4:50 pm

Lmao this killed me hahahaha

Pikachu - January 7, 2021, 4:51 pm

Holy crap lol, thankfully it didn't escalate into anything crazy though. And kudos for not running off like most people do, proves you're not an idiotic sadistic a hole, rather you're part of the sensible more respectable members of society.

You literally killed me with the damaged mustang pic but happy that no one is hurt and everything has been taken care off.

debug - January 7, 2021, 8:42 pm

At least you didn't hit and run. ;)

Spore - January 7, 2021, 9:29 pm

Maaan around here, someone would've pulled a gun on me.

At least you didn't hit and run though, happened to me 2 years ago when I was living with my mom. Had to park on the curb ONE morning and bam, got fucked on my passenger door. Had to go to 4 different junk yards to find a matching door to an antique truck. Which cost me about $200 with window and guts and all
