Thread: Scrubspooft uid=4229993 - REFUNDED ME!

c0peb0t - January 8, 2021, 7:41 am

Scrubspooft refunded me and therefore there is no need for a community alert anymore.

Any other customers having issues I recommend getting a refund.

Thanks! ?

Did you use a contract? If yes, then open a dispute. If not then why didnt you? Most sellers here practice false advertisement. "Completed 100000 orders", "Earn 10000$ monthly with this 20$ ebook" and such. Those things are scummy behavior but not using contracts is a violation of site policy.

Good on you then mate. Hope you get a full refund. Don't close the dispute till you get the refund. Try and use middlemen in the future. Kill Joy offers free mm services so check him out.

Thought it seemed odd they only wanted $300 for it. Could earn that in a few minutes with something like that. hope you get your money back and think a lil more before making purchases!

Regardless of it being able to make money. It's the principle. He sold something publicly available on top of that blatant misadvertising on TWO points.

1. Claiming it can @everyone notifying all users in the Discord.
2. Claiming it is a security fault, vulnerability, exploit or bug. It's none of the four. ?

Make sure to mention or quote the person otherwise they won't even be aware, typically, of the report on their own.
