What about Negan?

I wanna see him beating Daryl and Carol with Lucille.

No exception.

Do you like the serie?

Or is the serie bad?

I stopped watching right at Negan, show got contrived and watered down.

Loved the series till Andrew Lincoln left. Don't have high hopes for it anymore.

Andrew Lincoln made the show, really surprised that a main character leaves, even though it did leave a re-entry an option

I haven't watched since the "whispering" gang.

Daryl is someone who many people are indifferent to.

He killed people over the course of the series who could have changed and who posed no threat to him

Not at all, they just have been through so much shit that they can't trust people anymore. I know exactly who you're referring to, and well, he was in the wrong place at the wrong time. The current Daryl would not do that, the saviors and the whispers really put them in a bad position.

But even before this whole story with the Saviors and Whisperers began, Daryl was almost a stone-cold killer who humiliated everyone else who wasn't part of his people.
