Thread: NulldB got engaged! Marriage in a few weeks!

7 - January 12, 2021, 1:43 am

Hi Everyone,

It's been an absolutely crazy past 12 months.

After losing everything in the past 3 years from my businesses, my father all the way up until 12 months ago where I lost my home, my mind and my life.

I came back to HF after a few years of suffering life alone. I was placed into emergency housing after losing the very last of anything I had last year due to being almost killed by a brutal attack leaving me with a head injury, then COVID and then suffering (worse than ever) mental health illnesses.

I used a broken MacBook Pro, plugged into a HDMI monitor I found in a skip and started to rebuild my life.

Anyway, long story short as I will probably save the full story for a proper thread. I ended up leaving Spain, went to the UK and eventually ended up in eastern Europe where now I am living and 2 days ago proposed to my girlfriend who is now my Finanee.

I have never been so happy and we are getting married in a few weeks and some of my closest HF member friends are coming to the wedding.

Exciting times, so much love to share with you all

Blessed Be

Spore - January 12, 2021, 1:48 am

This is so awesome. I'm happy for your recovery and that you seem to be stronger than ever. Congratulations on tying the knot! Hope to see some pictures, and possibly a proper thread briefing your past? I'm sure a lot of us would love to hear it.

Props to you, my man!

2xTheTap115 - January 12, 2021, 1:49 am

Wow. I can see you've had a hard time in your life lately. The better it is to hear that you're coming out straight, bro?

All the best to you on your new way of life, now it can only get better??

P.S. Post photos of the wedding here, I'd love to see HF enjoy it all??

Mind - January 12, 2021, 1:51 am

So happy for you brother! Best of luck <3

HOMODIN - January 12, 2021, 1:54 am

Congratz man, I'm happy for you!

It's really nice to see that you managed to turn it all around, I know how hard it can be, I have been there too. Stay strong mate :)

Thanks mate. Good question actually. There are a few types of Brits that migrate to Spain and for various reason. There are the Elderly who generally sell their homes in the UK to buy a house in Spain (which is much cheaper) and live their final years in the sun on their pensions, which they also cash in for one large payment. There are also the middle-aged group who move to Spain to start a business (this is kinda cringe). Opening bars, never learning Spanish, wondering why the businesses fail and usually resulting in "English Breakfast" places and Irish bars. Then there are the younger group which usually one of two reason... to run away from the UK or to live "The only way is Marbz" lifestyle or both. Resulting in sex, drugs and crime or poverty. This is a rough overview but actually pretty accurate.

Spain is still half of the cost of living than the worst parts of the UK. It's not only the Brits anymore that highly migrate to Spain but also Dutch, German & Scandinavians. Most of the south coast of Spain is call centres & property investment which used to mostly British but are now Scandinavian. This is because the price value for Brits dropped since the strength of the Euro where for Danish and Norwegians its still 4 times cheaper.

Most Brits move to Spain, eating English breakfast each day, wearing their socks and trackies whilst hanging out in Irish bars in the sniff... lol

Personally, I am not a massive fan of Spain for living and career. Norway, Sweden and Denmark were my favourite places I lived until I moved to România which is by far my new favourite place, which is probably the best place (in Europe) to setup outsourcing business too, although adding the language to my collection is rather challenging now haha

People have such a messed up view on România but I got [mention=2774521] to come over and visit and he was pretty shocked and loved it.

Thanks for the detailed answered. I kind of figured it's along those lines but you explained that very good. There are people from Romania that give Romania a bad reputation that you're talking about. However, it's only a fraction of people from Romania that give such reputation and as always, people quickly jump to conclusions and judgement. Very few know that Romania has one of the fastest average internet speeds in the world, if not the fastest. :)

Exactly. Romanian people are actually very loving and warm. Internet speeds at home are 1gbps up and down and cost like 7$ per month which is crazy good and ping is super low.

There are alot of good members on HF from Romania too hahaha.. that seems to be the view but she comes on HF discord VC sometimes, she's really laid back to be honest.

I explained to her how everyone on HF is super "Anonymous" and use aliases to disguise ourselves.. so when [mention=2774521] asked her what her name was she paused.... and said.. umm.... "Cookie" hahahah so cute

When i got back to HF properly this year I joined VC with [mention=2774521] Zeus Cooligan and a few more in the HF discord. First time I voice called them ever and at the time I was in and out of hospital, without a home or any income and they have been with me along the journey.

But also KyO , ETH and Tor who have been along on the trip with me and family to me. In fact, most of the these people and others like Screemz are coming to my wedding..
I fucking love you my dude.

Can't wait for the festivities. ?

Congrats man!

I'm actually getting married next month. Got engaged a few months ago and we planned the wedding fairly quickly.

We've known each other for 14 years now so the love was always there. It allowed things to move quickly in a natural way ??

I'm happy for you my brother! Love you and wish you guys the best ?

Man thanks for that! Nice to hear too glad you also found your partner.

Sometimes when your sure there is no reason to hold back and wait.. I know what I want and so does she just like you both and so why delay

Much love <3

Ayy hell yeah, surprised you haven't seen it until now. Granted though I haven't done any advertising for it yet.

But yeah it's the old Phoenix group userbar actually (aka 143 v2). In late 2013/early 2014 Tibit was given approval by the 143 owners to make a new group with the same principles, ideas, and members as 143 because it was being sold at the time and people didn't want to see the group completely go. We made the userbar as similar as possible (because old school userbar templates weren't allowed anymore at the time, only modern ones) so we added the 2 hearts from the 143 userbar and put them on the middle crest, and added the wings you see now for the wings of the Phoenix itself. Luckily for me Tibs gave me rights to both his groups back when he knew he was being closed. Him and I were very good friends and The Empire and Phoenix were my two favorite groups on HF and he knew it all too well. We were all very close so he allowed it to happen. Even sent me all the PSD's as well. Not sure how long I'll have the Phoenix userbar on, might just keep it and turn it into CooliCrew with some Phoenix ideals...haven't decided yet.

So anyway, that's the small history behind it. :P
