Thread: uid: 4520446 aka Ruggzee Scamming 5k

NativeConscripting - January 12, 2021, 1:23 pm

I have insane amount of proof for this guy scamming me 5k,
one of the transactions :

<https://www.blockchain.com/btc/tx/0fb2168b7363adb4d83cbaa4fe0cb0450e48e9e8cdb5786e5036aa04c39fdad2>

have so much evidence against this guy i doubt he will even answer: <https://prnt.sc/wm43l2>

this : <https://prnt.sc/wm443a> and this : <https://prnt.sc/wm44g1> (beginning of conversation) user has cleared telegram conversation but luckily i saved everything, he also changed his telegram username multiple times, <https://prnt.sc/wm44r7> just a variant of 'cryptogenius'

Can't open a deal dispute as no contract was made, personally i don't care about the money im just warning other users.

Artisan - January 12, 2021, 1:27 pm

Please use a contract and a middleman in the future. Sorry for your loss.

I never messaged you on discord at all. You sent me your discord earlier today and I have no funds right now to buy. I did a deal last night that took it all. Why do people do this shit. You sent me your username after that point I communicated 0 with you. Nothing there shows any proof aside from me asking for your name, but I haven't even been dealing today. Also that's not my discord, I have other members here that I've talked to off discord and that's not it. Also, any deal I will require a contract. Don't try to get me. Either you're lying or you asked someone if it was me without even verifying which is a no no.

What discord are you talking about you clearly, admitted in your dm towards me that it was all done on telegram, maybe read the deal dispute next time before you try to form a ' we talked on discord ' christ this guy is trying so hard, you can't even loop thru ur lie correctly

Sorry telegram. Other members here have messaged me on telegram and that is not my telegram. I would never even begin a deal without a contract. So you randomly sent a random person 5k because you asked them if it was me and they said yes? Correct?

Yes the person that dmed me instantly after me responding to your dm request with my telegram asking me to buy btc, without my telegram being public, yes i assumed that was you because that's you.

(i can prove this with timestamps with the messages)

This guy's full of shit sadly, Messages me 3 minutes ago saying: <https://prnt.sc/wm4r6w> "i dont deal off HF" yes that's why you told me you'd add my telegram in your first dm ON HF.

Man I see this too often. At this point I'm sure you're just making this up. Advice to you. Always contract here, that's the TOS for a reason. And I'm sure you're a multi as I've seen this trick too many times trying to get free money. This is the last comment I'll make on this thread. Don't appreciate my name being slandered, not sure if we had beef on another one of your accounts, but I don't appreciate this at all. I wouldn't normally -5 someone for opening any type of report, but where you're throwing dirt on my name, that's unacceptable to me.

Yeah, never deal without contracts. Sadly there is no proof it is actually Ruggzee.

Especially if you didn't hand out your telegram to anyone else. At the end of the day, I think you know this, it doesn't matter. The money is gone... big rip man.

I'm glad you have nothing else to say, got shut down really quick, anyone sub 70 iq will understand that we had to 2 lines of conversation on HF it went as:

Native: Hey send me your telegram

Ruggzee: Send me yours I'll add you

Just for you in your post to say we had no conversation beyond that is pretty idiotic,

<https://prnt.sc/wm4ta0> <https://prnt.sc/wm4tls> <https://prnt.sc/wm4u6b>

I'm sure all of this somewhere in your mind was 'fabricated', and all a lie, all the fees in just the transactions, copying your speech patterns, etc.

All just a giant lie, even making a video on the exact same iphone you have: <https://prnt.sc/wm4uqx>

SO you never gave your id to anyone else? How long did it take to add you minus the time he read the message i believe you can see that i mean your money is GONE but since you really saying its him come with more proof backing your statement nothing will happen as no contract but would shed a big light IF you are indeed right that it was him.

Okay buddy. Just waiting for the $100 to close this message. Not sure how people even come close to falling for this. I admit I asked for your telegram, won't deny that at all, and maybe that was my mistake maybe I should have given mine. This is why I like my deals taking place on HF only. After this I won't even talk outside of HF if they ask. Not going to have someone attempt to set me up. Weak brother.

Even time stamps mean nothing, I'm telling people, he either sent someone money he knew, or this isn't even his money and he found a random payment. He could message himself right after messaging me lol. Time means nothing when you're trying to set someone up. These multi's have tried every angle lol. Look at this dudes old posts, smh.

Demanded it? I asked for it? And after reviewing you as I do with anyone before I deal, I didn't want to deal with you and this is why. Main points? I've ignored nothing but stupidity lol. I'm done bro. I also am not really needing crypto now. Also, my posts says I have 1300, nothing that high? So why even try to deal for more? I'm done, I'm busy and this is wasting my time now.

I mean from his words apparently he asked for my telegram and 'went radio silent' to not talk ever again! I'm sure that's how people do business.

tl;dr guy scams 5k, tons of evidence, claims after he asked my telegram 'communication stopped', as if people just instantly stop talking after exchanging usernames, changing telegram usernames constantly he did one of 2 things i talked about, running away and <https://prnt.sc/wm5css>

I'm by no ways choosing sides cause there no proof it was him and no contract i would hope he wouldn't but that btc addy figure out who else on here has dealt with it maybe its posted on a public contract somewhere. IT is indeed strange he asked for your ID and on here is saying you guys weren't dealing but it could be just cause he's aggravated cause he is truly innocent or panicking cause he's trying to cover it up. I believe he is innocent but i am human I could most definitely be wrong.

this all is pretty sus and dumb. Not many people are dumb enough to send $2k+ without any form of verification of who they are dealing with... that's why I'm leaning more towards Ruggzee's side. But then that just makes this whole thread a troll... what's the point. Lol.

How our convo went.

Him : hey g I wanna sell some Btc what's your discord or telegram

Me : what's your telegram

Me waiting looks him over and decides he's not someone I wanna deal with. I also don't need right now, but if it's a good people to exchange with I'll save contact or say yo.

Him : responds with his telegram

We never messaged again. I never said yo I messaged you, or will later. Got busy IRL and didn't care to message him.

the address has never been used before. its a fresh addy. also the money hasn't moved. idk

this all is pretty sus and dumb. Not many people are dumb enough to send $2k+ without any form of verification of who they are dealing with... that's why I'm leaning more towards Ruggzee's side. But then that just makes this whole thread a troll... what's the point. Lol.

2 fresh addy's for 2 payments is what I'm seeing, but has anyone talked to the guy on telegram? we could prove it pretty fast if someone has if someone has dmed him on telegram i can just forward them a message and they can click on the sender of the message and prove it was him, and we can close this down, notice how he's more persistently trying to evade if anything,

Yea he won't let me forward his messages to anyone he's talked to on telegram he doesn't even have to post his telegram username, it would be essentially a middleman just opening his profile from messages of the scam aka the conversation i posted, obviously he ran with his tail between his legs as soon as this was brought up, notice how in 3 different occasions he mentioned he was 'done responding' / 'done replying ' but this one apparently got him good.

like i told the other guy the 5k doesn't scratch anything, I have even more bitcoin and im going to exchange some more, what really got me is him trolling after he scammed me, tragic.

another tl;dr Ruggzee refused to let me forward messages from the scam to someone he's contacted thru telegram to prove his guilt/innocence. GG but he acknowledged the verification method as seeing here <https://prnt.sc/wm5sbb> declined despite sweating bullets in prior responses to the thread, no he won't get closed and i know that, but major DWC, and at best nobody goes first when dealing with him is enough for me.

Then another long cut from the conversation 7:50 PM - 8:19 PM without any images in between.

Another thing, let's theorize this is all real for a second, logically even make sense when he can't send 3k, but he can send 5k, doesn't that raise a red flag to you?

Where are the rest of the images? And where is the tx of the alleged 1st transaction?

Alright, thanks for answering my question. I'd like to ask two more, so I try to clear things up.

A) According to your profile you've spent 48 hours browsing through HF. 2 full days browsing through HF. You never happened to bump into a thread regarding a deal? Or maybe clicked on the contract template? You are completely unfamiliar with all these even though you've spent 2 full days using this site?

B) According to ruggzee's latest thread, he is interested in purchasing 1300$ BTC. According to you, you pm'ed him regarding that matter and end up giving him your telegram. Why did you end up paying him 5.000$ BTC instead of 1.300$?

A) I'm not sure part of me just didn't care enough to even use the system, nor do i blame the website or anyone except the scammer, i've accepted my fault in this and the only thing im looking for is a DWC on the guy so nobody goes first, that's all, nothing more nothing less because it was my fault i was careless, and i will probably continue to be careless.

Don't rule out the possibility of it being an inside job, with the objective defamation or blackmail.

There are a lot of images missing which makes me feel skeptical about this whole ordeal.

Staff doesn't get involved, but I would like to see if Ruggzee has read the PM before the situation took place.

If he read the private message past 7:50 PM, it gives me enough reason to believe it's an inside job.

It should say the date the message was read at under "Date Read"

Assuming the last message was the one containing your Telegram, it should be the last one.
