Thread: [\[AUTOBUY\] \[\$1/CODE\] CFA CHICKEN SANDWICHES \[ORIGINAL/SPICY\] \[INSTANT DELIVERY\]](#)

Chief - January 14, 2021, 12:31 pm

PLEASE READ THIS THOROUGHLY BEFORE PURCHASING. WORKS FOR US ONLY

- Each code is only valid for 1 ORIGINAL or SPICY chicken sandwich. ENTREE ONLY! (you cannot scan the same code multiple times).
- You can use up to 8 at a time. You can create two separate orders if you would like to use more than 8 at once.
- In drive-thru or in-store, tell the employee you have some coupons you'd like to redeem, regular or spicy, and state your name for the order.
- Can only be redeemed in-store or drive through.
- You cannot order deluxe or grilled sandwiches with these!
- These do not work for delivery (Uber, Grubhub, Doordash, etc.).
- These do not work for some locations (College campus, Airports, etc), so please make sure they are accepted at your local restaurant!
- If you're ever asked about how these are obtained, they're from surveys. If asked how you got them, you have a friend who works at a different location.

PRO TIP - You can ask for your order to be modified if you want it fresh!

FAQ

Codes can last for a week or more, but it is recommended to use them within a few days.

A code isn't generated until you open the link. Meaning if you buy 3 codes you will receive 3 separate links with 3 separate codes. Opening one code will not invalidate the others.

QR's Expire after a few days (not sure exactly how long) so to be safe ONLY DOWNLOAD when you're ready to eat

How do the coupons work? If I wanted to go in the drive through and get like 3 at a time, would they have to be different transactions? Do I tell the person taking my order? Because usually at Chick Fil a you pay before you even go to the window now a days.

You would state that you have coupons and they will either scan the QR code's or enter in the codes. You can do up to 8 per order.

When you purchase a code you are sent a link that generates a fresh code once opened. The links never expire but once generated I can guarantee the codes work for 2 days. After that and they may expire at any time. I tell all buyers to save the links until you are ready to eat then to generate a fresh code that works!

I hope that answers your question

If you have purchased in the few days and are having issues please contact me for a resolution.

To future buyers: I will be pausing sales for the next day or so. Working on a few behind the scenes features which will cause some bugs in delivering the codes and I don't want to have anyone inconvenienced when trying to buy a chicken sandwich!

I bought some a week ago but some of the links didn't work today and when I tried to use redemption code lady said it wasn't valid. I didn't open those links until today. It didn't let me actually get to the coupon, only the screen where you can see the emails. 4 worked 6 didn't. Will they work when the bug is fixed?

Reopen the links when you're ready to order. Supplier was fixing a bug today and reset the links that went dead at that time.
