Thread: Autoclaimed Twitter OG and Semi-OG usernames

uint32 - January 16, 2021, 1:14 pm

I own several og twitter handles that have been autoclaimed.
All of them are secure on a new account that is phone verified so no chance for bans.

(Opened a new thread because I went past the edit limit without realizing)
Here's the list

New claims everyday, let me know if you would like to place an offer on any of these.

Only accepting crypto payments (btc, eth, xmr)

Join our autoclaimer discord server to see our fresh claims, we also have lots of bots and webhooks that can be very interesting if you're in the og community: discord link: /claimer

If anyone has any questions or would like a faster reply (or just want to join the autoclaimer server) you can add me on discord: uint32#5755
