Thread: [\[Samaritans\] Personal Support Thread 2021](#)

Haseo™ - January 17, 2021, 11:42 am

Life is hard, we understand that.

Though the group Samaritans is no longer around, I believe this thread is needed more now than ever. The past year was certainly rough for everyone and are now looking forward to a brighter year.

We ask you not to troll on this thread or any of the members that have donated their time to help users with their problems.

We are not professionals but we want to do as much as when can. We will be your listening ear and can provide a different take on the situation.

Here is a list of toll-free help lines if you ever feel like you need more help then what we can provide.

Awesome thread and idea mate, I'm always happy to help in any way I can if possible!

Cooligan - January 17, 2021, 1:35 pm

This reminds me of the help desks we used to make back in the day for groups like Phoenix, 143, and The Empire of course.

Miss those days.

Good on you for bringing one back man, the HF community definitely benefits from these. I've spoken to hundreds of members over the years about their personal issues or things they might be going through irl at that time, so it's definitely something that is high in demand just more so in a one-on-one and private aspect.

Can't wait to see how this does!

This is awesome man. Posting to come back later.

Thanks James ^_^

Yeah I would agree it's rare but with so much negativity surrounding us on our day to day lives it's refreshing to see positivity even from unknown sources.

I appreciate the kind words and support from you Cooligan! Yes I remember 143 will always be a legend in my heart, I wanted to do something like this out of respect for my mentor and people could use something like this from time to time for sure. You've done your fair share of helping HF members so the OG's should be thanked as well. Tips Hat Thank you good sir.
