Thread: RDP Servers

His Discord:

This user has sold me and several others RDP's within last few days, and magically all of them went down last night around 6PM CST.

Since then, he has logged on this morning lying about when he "found out" until I showed a screenshot of what he said on discord, then he backstepped and said he was doing replacements, when contacted over discord his answer was different. I had a fellow HF user contact him on his verified discord to see if he was going to try selling anymore RDPs, and indeed he did try.

He has active dispute on him, he read the thread, negged the guy and closed all his threads afterwards.

Beware of dealing with this user, I didn't have active contract with him because at the time of our deal he was "post banned" and claimed it was limiting his features of starting/accepting any contracts.

That's where you fucked up. It's a simple a rule, don't deal without a contract.

+1.. This user also scammed me:

I purchase (server 3) .. After 2'days of working, the VPS has going down.. The guy said Host is in maintenance, and they give me new VPS.

I still waiting him a full day, and before 3 horu's the guy telled me, i need to wait more 1-2 hours for the replacement new VPS.

After 3 hours still now, i did not get anything new VPS.

I was going to make deal with him, I saw his thread closed, and seemed strange to me until I talk with OP if he was good with the service due to the issues with the sales.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Hope it helps people to be sure whether want to deal with him or not even with the contract. I'm taking steps backward and look to another supplier.

Not sure how this is an exit scam. He's actively trying to fix the issue it seems.

Quote:All issues being resolved those who have Pm'd me servers are being setup or already shipped out details and those who haven't pm'd me need to me ASAP thanks for patience in regards to this incident and customers will receive 25% off my servers for duration of 2 months,

Also server maintenance doesn't have a set time frame. It could take 24 hours to fix a server or 24 minutes. Maybe have some patience?

Did you also read the full pictures? It says on his thread; he is giving replacement to PM .. when I PM, he says no replacement.

I have scammed also from this Fiend... Check my opened dispute.. Not answering about Refund or Replacement.. First replacemend said i got in 2hours, and now stop answering..

I hope got banned soonly :)))

Zeus - January 17, 2021, 1:56 pm

Next time dont fall for this without contracts bro.

Very risky dealing without contracts!

He tried selling BooGod (user on here HF) a RDP literally not even 1 hour ago.

He has ignored my questions simply asking for a update, (I don't spam him, I have messaged him literally twice in last 12 hours)

@OP Understood what happened, but I'd say give it the 24 hours and see where all this goes. Hopefully others see this before dealing if all is not resolved.
Possibility for a high quality outcome.

I can't do more than this anyway, as I do not have active contract.

At time he gave me this excuse

Again this is just to hopefully prevent any new members from being scammed.

jassange01 - January 17, 2021, 2:26 pm

I dont know, if here any users to trust this guy it's not a scam? Ha-Ha-Ha !! Why we waiting more??
+1 to be banned :)))

Just going to leave this up as a perfect example of how NOT to do deals.

OP failed to:

1. Use contracts
2. Deal on site
3. Perform proper due diligence.
