Thread: Cashing out XRP

lostro30 - January 31, 2021, 9:15 pm

I have a small XRP bag in Coinbase and I live in the US. What are some ways to cash out my XRP? Thank you

Zitten - January 31, 2021, 10:22 pm

At least cash out after the supposed XRP pump today.

But on-topic, I wouldn't know, never worked with Coinbase apparently.

Try to find XRP to USD or turn it into BTC/ETH.
Someone on here was looking to buy 10K.

Exactly.. I'm hoping it pumps to over a $1 and cash out. I think I need an Uphold account. I can transfer the XRP there from Coinbase and then convert it to ETH or BTC. Is anyone familiar with Uphold?

Seems there are coordinated things going on today at 8:30 EST to pump and hold XRP. I personally don't trust schemes like this as its a DOGE pump and dump all over again, although XRP is a better coin than DOGE.

I wonder how things are going to go when that happens. XRP already up $0.20 in less than 24 hours. I bet many people plan to cash out at $1 though.

I have been holding XRP since the 2017 days. I'll hold till it reaches that level.

Hoping for $1 too. I just missed on buying when it was like 0.4 ahh

I believe the pumping has officially started. I just took a look at the value of XRP and saw it being traded at $0.75. Actually looking forward to seeing where this goes by end of day today (in my timezone atleast).

Lmao it dumped hard at that timestamp.

And that ladies and gentleman is how you get scammed by a whale.

Whale buys in, hypes everyone up for a upcoming "pump" at estimated time, people FOMO buy in increasing the price. When price is increased whale fucks everyone over by dumping with huge profit.

ZeroOne - February 1, 2021, 6:46 am

Fortunately, I didn't invest into this. Looking at the price right now, it's hovering right around $0.45. However, maybe by the end of the day things will change.

Most people getting into crypto don't understand what a pump and dump actually is. What they think is a quick "get rich now" is actually just a scam to get people to buy into something with the small off chance that everyone talks about it and it goes up. XRP will either recover from the $0.33 barrier it drops too or not I guess, who the floof knows.

I'll just hold all my coins, especially with 1,000 XRP cause eh it pay for my snorting habits.
