My main goal is to just make a meme coin, I edited the post a little bit.

I don't want to defraud anyone im not even asking anyone here to buy or pump a coin.

This sounds like defrauding investors.

How is it defrauding investors by making a meme coin?

They understand what they will be buying, I will advertise it as a meme and thats all.

How do you plan to promote this? Creating a token + website is easy but promoting is hard.

I'm very interested btw.

Doge is our memecoin , don't replace it.

Thanks

"so people who buy it think there getting a good deal, paying $10 or $20 for a million coins." This sentence shows you're defrauding investors. You're deceiving them.

Bro how is that defrauding investors? They will know how many coins their are relative to how many their buying. There's a reason why doge and Shiba have billions of coins so they look cheap and it makes you want to accumulate a lot.

Stop reaching.

I can do all that, in fact, I've already done all that, just not a "meme" token, but with the recent meme stonks it sounds like a good idea. Promoting is the hardest part I'll tell ya that. Need a lot of promotion to get decent volume to get listed on cmc and coingecko. They don't list anyone. I failed with that and quit trying. If you are interested, hit me up and we might figure something. :)

I can help you,

Have good experience in website development, Server related stuff also have fund for invest. But I want to know your plan. Do you have any marketing strategy?

SIM-4378207 - February 3, 2021, 3:45 am

But Neblio is already a meme coin bro

Yes but who will buy it? How many times have you bought a coin on uniswap that's not even on coinmarketcap or coingecko?

I had it listed on Uniswap with 50eth liquidity, someone actually bought 0.4 eth worth of it, then sold it back after a few days. I have removed liquidity since. It was an experiment. ? Burned a a lot on fees creating the contract, liquidity pools, transferring it to multiple addresses of my own. xd ETH fees for those operations are bonkers.

Okay so maybe I could agree you aren't trying to defraud investors.

Until...

"We can make a trillion of the coin, so people who buy it think there getting a good deal, paying $10 or $20 for a million coins."

Get out of here. These P&D coins are an absolute disgrace to the ecosystem & if you plan on pre-mining and dumping on investors you are no better than a lot worse than the traditional finance sector.
