Thread: Bring back the clover award?

Nate - February 3, 2021, 9:54 pm

I think this would be another great idea to boost activity in all forums, especially with the Eggs as some people don't use them or just auction them off.

I think it would be a fun and interesting to see a revision of that coming back.

I didn't even know that the clover award had been discontinued. I guess being away from HF for a while has plenty of cons and this is another one of them.

correct, all i do is lottery off my eggs

Megatron - February 4, 2021, 12:17 pm

I think this would be a good idea. Either a clover, like it used to be, or something similar to it would be interesting to work for just by posting and getting lucky. Maybe there can be different types to collect, similar to the eggs, with some having a low drop rate. The eggs are cool, but it's kind of sad that they disappear and really only serve a couple of purposes.

Me too.

Why not have both? Clover awards for luck and eggs for lotteries? It's a win-win situation.

SIM-353284 - February 4, 2021, 12:24 pm that would be indeed a lovely sight to see, some awards !

spiral - February 4, 2021, 12:31 pm

I think I still have your userscripts to character count to make sure the post is long enough to qualify for the Clover

Never was able to get one when they were around. Still using the clover character count userscripts to this day to see how many characters my replies are lmao.

Awww someone doesn't have a clover award?

I report you to ze authorities, omni will protec me.

guardian - February 5, 2021, 6:20 am

I would love to see it coming back. Now that I post a lot more, I would probably have a better chance of getting it than I had back in the days. Eggs are not really awards to me. I would love to be able to keep some eggs for a while, but as they die after 7 days, they are not really an award to me.

Because after awhile the egg system will be completely looked over.

Once the still remaining userbase that actually uses the eggs moves on, nobody will want to buy them so the lottery queue will be filled with tons of eggs that nobody wants or people will just forget the eggs entirely and just let them rot away.
