As per all the information posted on this thread:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?pid=60555437>

The buyer is guilty of defrauding us by trying to claim his purchase as a fraudulent transaction via Stripe three months post-purchase which is absurd, considering, the user utilized his full month's service without any issues whatsoever and now we are left with no money for the time we invested with the user alongside the wealth of information he got for the 30 days.

Thank you for your kind words, I really appreciate it.

Well, the thing is unlike Paypal, Stripe works differently. They don't even listen and no way to appeal whatsoever. They straight out deduct the funds straight away either from your bank or in our case, from the pending balance. Luckily, we had a pending balance in the account as the payment is cleared net every 3/4 days and the bulk of the amount was deducted from that and the remaining $16 was cleared from the bank. That is the reason why we were so pissed about the whole situation.

Well, let's just hope this user doesn't end up doing the same to others with bigger amounts. That would be very depressing.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

Man..... That is indeed very low to come 3 months after and claim your money back! Sorry for your loss, I guess he has not tried to resolve this?

It's okay bro, sometimes people are just... evil? And, sadly - no. He got his money and I doubt he'll even try to settle this.

But it is what it is, hence the community alert on that guy.
