WOW, it is nice to finally be home and out of the hospital. both my sister and mom died from corona virus and i have fully recovered thank and iv been out for about a week now.

got my corona shots in dallas so the only people in our home right now is my father and I.

i hope every one is safe and with theyre family's because i took some shit for granted and now it really is gone. ill never have my mom back again or my 33 year old sister.

enough about my life, im just happy to be in a community where i feel like its home.
hopefully i get to meet you guys and we can trade cool hacks cheats or whatever it is.
im ready to be a hackforum member VIP when ever i can make some money thatnks guys

Thanks. so far i havn't ran into any body troublesome hehe seriously though, that really means a strech you reaching out. i knew that there is still good people that existed.

'Its starting to hit me, the realization of them gone.. my dad is..not him self. ever since mom died, then my sister shorty after, he's had a blank stare on his face like.... idk TBH.

hes not eating at all. he'd make food for me when he's next to a load of bread for a cheese sandwich..

im reading in on it and im not sure if he's going through a despression or what!!!

Man, I couldnt imagine losing my mom and my sister in the same week or even year. I personally am religious and will be praying for you and your family.

If you need to reach out to someone please feel free to do so through convos on here, I will be more than happy to talk with you my friend.

If you ever need a fun place to just talk with random people on here we have a nice little community that hangs around here <https://hackforums.net/convo.php>

Cheers and keep your head up!
