its hard to search for it in public forums , people claiming to provide are most likely scammers. try elitepvp find a good seller, if ure new try to learn the game. if u just go full obv u will get manual banned and they dont provide any info further.

not new, and im looking for a developer or someone who knows one. I dont trust any site, ive talked with hackservices on darknet, they could do it, but its not their area so they charge more than cheat devs..

sad sad sad what did you post exactly? time to embarrass you child. i dont know why you literally can't stop mentioning me but at this point im getting worried..

first of all, i was simply asking a retarded dev if he was able to do something and he acted like a complete asshole. what was the issue there?

in regards to your second point, i was using umbrella.gg for a few months and guess what, i was actually paying 25$ a month, it's what they were charging.

are you that miserable that even though i havent posted in a while you're still talking about me? even went all the way to make a collage?

i seriously hope you put this much effort in your everyday activities, guessing by who you are, you definitely aren't a successful individual so this will be the last time i ever respond to you.

please try to keep my name out your thoughts and mouth, if you need a dick pick just dm me last thing to say, go look at your post history, i swear YOU ARE MY NUMBER ONE FAN BITCH <3
