Moved to market for not violating rules.

Unless you are pinning this thread sales threads are not allowed here, moe to the market.

Also 35 bucks for setting up a modified old source? And you call that cheap? No offense my dude but 35 bucks for a modified source of an old botnet is not cheapo. Especially because recently there where some really good botnet releases such as BlackNet which are free.

Unless you made MAJOR changes to the source to make it truly good, I think it sounds eh

It might have been a little expensive, specially the non bulletproof server. Ill be open for changes, what would be a fair price? how do i change to sales pinned?

the same trash, repackaged differently, named differently, sold for money.
