No idea g, you know why? cuz 9 years ago I promised myself I'd never buy anything from McDonalds again and guess what? I kept my promise lol, still can't believe it it's been that long. So now if I enter McDonalds I'll probably look like a retard cuz I have 0 clue what's new. All I remember is they had: cheeseburger, big mac and mctoast lol

It's all designed to taste great, but to murder you.

mrknol - February 20, 2021, 11:04 am

After moving to London McDonald's here is rubbish. I don't enjoy it at all, it isn't as good as back in Lebanon. The fries are all sloppy and humid and the crappy burger is no where close to mediocre. I enjoy Five Guys here, it's the best fast food chain in my opinion. Though Five Guys in the Netherlands was way better.

It's weird to see how these fast food chains perform differently in other regions. Wish they were all alike.

Yea that's the problem, I was addicted to it cuz it was on my way to school, so I used to go there almost every day before and after school which led to being fat af, so 1 day I was like: screw that and bam 9 years haven't touched anything from McDonalds or similar food chains.

I hate myself after eating it but I do really enjoy it. I always go for the Big Tasty if it's available, Big Mac if not, with large fries and a large coke. Nothing quite like it in a rush or on a lazy day!

It's such a good burger! It's not always available, but when it is I have to get it. It's just the right amount of meat, grease and cheese lol.

Arby's is something I haven't enjoyed much, Wendy's however I have and I can say I feel like the burgers are "fresher" than McDonald's.

I had McDonald's as soon as I got to the hotel after arriving to Dubai last night. It's bad food that tastes good.

Goku - February 21, 2021, 3:29 am

When I was a kid McDonald's was really the shit. It tasted awesome, and it was overall a fun experience.

But over the years the taste changed and McDonald's got boring.

Also,

McDonald's beef = Shit

McDonald's chicken = Shit

McDonald's fries = Shit

It being bad for you is just the icing of the cake.

Starting to feel a bit more like myself now, thank you! I think maybe I've not had enough electrolytes in recent days and I'm falling apart as I get older lol

My typical order is:

- > 20 Nuggets (Eat about 10 of them. I'll eat the rest of them later. Put them in the oven & they don't go soggy or rubbery)
- > Double Quater Pounder, No pickles with a bit of extra mayo. Tastes great and isn't so dry
- > Medium Fries
- > Medium Fanta

Occasionally i'll also grab a Cheeseburger from the saver menu to eat before the drive home

I'm always too full to eat a McFlurry after with the amount of food I get haha. I don't think they do 10 nuggets in the UK so always just get the 20, plus its great if you get a bit hungry at night ?One could even say they taste better after putting them in the oven

It's probably the best part of Mcdonalds. I try not to do it too often though, at one point was having Mcdonalds 3 times a week

Carrot - February 24, 2021, 12:02 pm

theres only a few decent times to acceptably consume mcdonalds;

When hungry

When the Monopoly is running

I strongly believe Mcdonald's is engineered to get people hooked on unhealthy food, so just indulge responsibly like anything else.

You're not in the wrong for not enjoying it, It's by no means good for you, It's like a drug It's good only when consumed, after well it's never good.

This is not a thing where I'm from, but by all means, enjoy.
