Off the back of Grizzlies recommendation and some research around the team, I have jumped on LIT earlier at $7 USD.

Anyone else holding this? Whats peoples opinions and predictions?

At first I started staking it on Binance, then I decided to jump in and buy some, then I sold everything for around 11 bucks. I might buy again now that it's low but I'm still not sure, looks like a solid project tho.

It's a tricky one, I'm holding for the foreseeable with the number of losses I've taken elsewhere from today. With the project and the team, I can see LIT recovering well and hopefully pushing higher.

I did the exact same thing. It got vouchs from traders I respect so I went to find a good buy-in price. $7 was looking tempting today so I got in.

I jumped @10.

Lost around 300$ already.

Won't sell tho.

HODLLL

I swapped some coins in at $10 also, then more today. So I am also taking an L, then again so is everyone in 99% of coins rn. Holding LIT for a while.

I am holding LIT, bought at 8$, expecting a good pump in next few weeks,

I expect new ATH, anyway it's a short-mid term position for me.

Not really sure if long run is worth the risk (it might change).
