Facebook are a little too limiting with new accounts..

Anybody have a decent set of fake accounts preferably with photos that are at least a few months old. No hacked accounts please, don't want anything illegal like that.

Let me know how many you've got and for how much.??

I have 100's of them and they are all legit. They are 5+ years old at least and are just people I got to give me them. I rent them weekly if you need the ad accounts on them and I also provide 24/7 support for identity confirmation, 2 step verification, etc. Let me know.

Is this still valid? I understand a year has passed, but I'm looking for a Facebook account or two which will be able to DM a bit over a dozen people.
