Thread: Osrs Promotions has Disputed a Contract with luv. \(633548 \)

Osrs Promotions - March 1, 2021, 1:09 pm

Contract Link: <https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=264331>

Disputed Member: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=633548>

He basically sent me like 10 messages in here which I can provide all and asked to finalize the deal on discord after he confirmed the contract here.

I don't mind for 30$, is just that he is spamming gold seller and account buyers to scam them. Be aware

I like how this kid avoids posting on his own DD, provides no information for his claims of not dealing with OP, and is about to deal with more people, potentially scamming them as well.

Seen this same shit 100x+ now, unfortunate.

Yeah, you claim you never got the gold yet you didn't send another response or address what he said immediately after the supposed trade took place? You just went offline and avoided any sort of confrontation/ghosted him and then denied the deal ever took place, typical scamming pussy mentality. You even dug up some shit off of another forum to discredit OP and provide a distraction after the fact, over a measly 30 fucking dollars. Got me ctfu ???? imagine being this pathetic.

You're just lucky that OP didn't record the trades taking place, unfortunate.

As it stands looks like you took his gold and scammed him. You probably assumed because of his rep it was an easy mark.

At what point was he stalling? He confirmed your username, you responded a minute later, the supposed trade happened immediately after, followed by him asking for payment.

Do you think because you didn't respond with something confirming that trade occurred or that you were sending a payment that you're somehow innocent? Your explanation for saying nothing and going offline are quite literally retarded.

Post your discord logs from your end, let's see em'.

Do you think anyone is unaware that you can delete messages from your end on discord?

Are you really that fucking stupid?

Messages are literally TIMESTAMPED in his image. THERE WAS NO STALLING TO SPEAK OF FROM THE SCREENSHOTS.

Keep digging yourself a deeper hole, now you're posting the conversation with your messages confirming your who he met in-game with 'yeah' deleted, I'm done, LMFAO.

HOW DO YOU PROVE YOU DIDN'T RECIEVE GOLD? Are you allowed to just pretend to sell something, start a contract, then say the buyer never paid meanwhile you didn't deliver on the product?

He confirmed with the guy that he was trading the right person, and then later deleted the message on his end through discord before posting his perspective here a day later.

This is literally the nail in the coffin, this guy is 100% a scammer. There is no point in even going back and forth with him, he will just continue to spew more bullshit such as saying OP was stalling when the timestamped conversation shows the trade only taking a few minutes after he confirmed who he was on HF/discord.

"what's the point" the point is to prove yourself innocent or admit you scammed OP, that is what a deal dispute is, you defend yourself against their claims.

Very easy actually. If it's possible to send a screenshot of your current balance, and any sort of purchase logs both in game and trading logs, that would show a lot.

You deleted messages from the screenshot and got caught, we are eating nothing. purchase logs?....bro you in a Runescape thread and don't even know how the game is played? Lmfao I'm done.

Do you know what timezones are? No? Are you seriously as stupid as you portray yourself here? Nothing is edited, you clearly deleted your responses, it's obvious.

You seem REALLY desperate for that $30 considering the amount of time you've spent here digging a deeper hole for yourself by providing logs that you have now removed your messages from and sticking to this story of him stalling when his images from discord are clearly timestamped and show that they occurred within a very small timeframe. If there was 5 hours of stalling, where is the rest of the conversation?

Ofc it's not about the money I've been here 10 years so a dispute is annoying. Idk it seems my real logs can't compete with edited logs from a 5 month old user who didn't provide proof he sent the gold.

So yeah on that note I'll wait for him to message me where to meetup for the 60m so we can complete the deal. Thanks for the discussion! ?

You're a scammer, end of story. Keep it up with the bullshit excuses, providing discord logs with deleted messages, denying a trade ever occurred or claiming that this conversation took 5-6 hours. None of which are true, clearly.

"Though my ventures never led to any serious money making opportunities, the knowledge I gained by just reading tutorials, posting, and collaborating with others gave me experience in all those fields, and eventually I found a full-time job. I'll give about 80% credit to HF for the career ? , which is in marketing and and product development. (Shoutout SEO and Internet Marketing section)."

Either you lost your imaginary job, bought your HF account, or are just genuinely mentally incapable because otherwise you wouldn't be this desperate for $30 in osrs gold, lmao.

Anyone in a situation similar to this that was in fact innocent wouldn't bother to continuously post incriminating retarded statements or delete their own messages and then provide logs of the only other person involved having a one-sided conversation of them speaking to themselves.

If this were a forum where staff were involved in disputes, like the one you mentioned earlier in this thread, you'd already be banned for posting modified conversations and contradicting yourself with endless lies.
