Thread: Anyone Playing Empire Total War: Rome II?

Hey guys,

Wondering if there is anyone on HF that are playing Empire Total War: Rome II from time to time?

I like the game a lot and would be fun to have someone to battle online, so let me know if you play it and we can fight each other lol.

Even if enough people play it, we can also make a tournament!

If you do not know what Empire Total War: Rome II is, then you can check it out below:

My younger brother LOVES total war and has so many of them. I've played them a tiny bit when he bitches at me too and they're pretty cool. I played a bit of a ROME II campaign. I hope you can find some others on here to play with :)

Lol.... Mind if I ask, how old is your younger brother? Like is he above the age of 18? Otherwise just forget it lol or you might as well come and battle me on the battle field bro! :D
