Thread: I have a confession

I don't know if introductions is the best place to tell this but after a long day at work I need to get something off my shoulders.

Hi my name's Shimano and I click on facebook clickbait. Yes I'm interested in which Harry Potter star is pregnant, yes I'm curious what buzzfeed has to say about my finances, and you better believe I want to know which mascara lasts the longest. This is an addiction, I literally need to know top 5 cars wallstreet says are going to go up in value. I can't stop, I installed a PiZero with pihole in my house literally just so I could get through ads easier that were taking pages too long to load. This is the kind of juicy stories that get me through my 9 to 5. Even worse I don't listen to my own godsend's advice! I still bought the car listed as automotives worst car to own and I bought my girlfriend the blemish remover rated 5th!

Hackers, I need your moral support.

Don't worry everyone I'm unbanned!!

Also no, never played those games, Shimano is a fishing brand.

My previous account was "Daiwa" which is another fishing brand (I was a leader of Terminal). Just making a full circle. (Also before you dickheads report Omni has allowed me to come back.)
