Not sure if anyone else has the same issue, but all my contracts payment info suddenly converted the emails / crypto addys to the "Buy Now" buttons with broken links.

I can also confirm this..... I would certainly hope this was some kind of glitch/incorrect value fed to JS :)

Yep, I noticed this too while viewing some contracts earlier today.

Same thing, I guess it's something related with the "Fonts update" again? may be not.

Yeah I noticed this yesterday, thought it was just me. I am sure it'll be fixed soon.

I just reverted a change. I have to review a code update from MyBB more carefully.
