Holy shit that's awesome. Guess I'm adding one more thing to the list of things I want to do.

Damn, that's crazy ? I wanna try it myself now lol
Wouldn't mind shooting from a tank as well

Wow nice one! Did you pay anything? it's expensive or not?

My dad paid for this as a gift to me since I recently was in the hospital. Not sure how much it is to go through the tour, but I know you got to pay extra to fire the gun.

Good stuff! I always wanted to go to Cambodia and fire some RPGs, but this can do too :D

I definitely will and yeah, in some states you can even buy a tank, I'll definitely try both if i get the chance

Blast was underwhelming. I'm sure it was light load. Not even sure it shoots anything. His voice counting down is louder than the bang.

Trev - March 23, 2021, 1:47 pm

The experience is dope, I was expecting a much louder "boom" when it fired ngl. xD

It was the smallest gun I know that for sure

Haha that's sweet. Biggest weapons I've shot are a .50 cal and a MK-19. They're pretty fun to shoot. Main gunning on a tank would be pretty sweet.
