I'm a big fan of the purple guavas too, I drink them an awful lot. Very refreshing and fruity taste, easy to forget it's an energy drink.

Miles Teller - March 27, 2021, 6:21 pm

I like the white monster and the blue monster. I also really like the C4 Smart Energy bombsicle one that tastes like a bomp pop Hell yeah man, you're spot on. Super nice on a hot day haha. I could drink way too many of those...

jecoylecoy - March 27, 2021, 6:56 pm

We only have cobra energy drink in my country. Ut is cheap.

Juoku - March 27, 2021, 11:15 pm

My favorite is also the actual red bull and the original monster (pineapple).

vyactor - March 27, 2021, 11:32 pm

Redbull is somehow the global favorite. I mean, not all but most of the people would prefer Redbull over other energy drink so do I too.

Glare - March 28, 2021, 12:24 am

I haven't had an energy drink in years, last week though I messaged Rockstar bsing about a flat 12 case I purchased so now they're sending me 12 coupons for free cans. Going to have to explore the flavors a little.

TB12 - March 28, 2021, 12:28 am

Only time I've ever had had an energy drink was a red bull one time when it was part of a gift basket my family got for moving into a townhouse. Tasted good but energy drinks are so damn bad for you I can't bring myself to buy them. So bad for you and I don't want to have to rely on them for energy

Dripstur - March 28, 2021, 1:34 am

Honestly haven't had an energy drink in years. Think last time was like middle/high school. But used to drink rockstar.

Same here. For me the last time was when I had 3 connecting flights but this was 6 or 7 years ago.

I like the original Redbull.

A lot of that is to do with the marketing, but if you're an energy drink fan chances are you're Red Bull is one of your favourites simply because it was one of the original energy drinks.

I'm drinking a Relentless right now, these aren't too bad either.

He B TeMy - March 28, 2021, 10:53 am

I have sufficient potassium bro, but there are several activities that would make it low like fatigue, stress or successive exposure warm in environment.

Monster Mule flavor. I would drink it everyday if I could but the shit is so bad for you.

Monster's description of the drink:

Quote:"Flavor highlighted by spicy/sweet ginger and backed up with zesty lime notes"

DocShifty US Army Retired - March 29, 2021, 9:18 am

Peach RedBull god damn that shit is good

Decoyshot - March 29, 2021, 10:04 am rsx - March 29, 2021, 10:12 am

In my teenage years I always stuck with the green or blue Monsters.

Nowadays, I go with any cans with 300mg of caffeine, like Bangs, Reign or gfuel. My favorite to pick up rn is gfuel cans I love Jevs swedish fish flavor.
