Thread: Thoughts on this privacy coin? \(Crypton/Utopia\)

They def put some work into their videos lol <https://u.is/en/video.html>

>Utopia is your all-in-one kit for secure instant messaging, encrypted e-mail communication, anonymous payments and private web browsing.

Crypton is their token <https://coinmarketcap.com/currencies/utopia/>

I will probably not invest into this(at least not yet), just found it interesting

XMR is just a privacy coin, Utopia team is trying to build "Utopia" inside the internet I guess with their Tor like browser, telegram like messaging app all in one software or something and Crypton being their own privacy coin.

Actually really like the idea behind it. But its more of a matter of trusting it. I haven't found any social pages for them with a few quick searches and looking on coinmarketcap so not too sure what to think yet but I do really like what they are trying to achieve! Thanks for the share!

Sounds like a fed thing to me. Lets see what happens.

My thoughts. Interesting. Very interesting. I'm looking forward to seeing how this all plays out.
