Thread: Is there any actual money making methods on here that aren't bullshit?

D0nttrustm3 - April 9, 2021, 12:51 am

Just wondering, been lurking for a while. Trying to find some methods that are worth investing in. I have money, but I don't want to waste my time on something that is garbage. I'm willing to pay a decent amount for a method that won't waste my time and will actually reasonably reward me for my time invested. Feel free to leave the link to a post for one that you have used personally, or can vouch for, and I will take a look.

I am willing to pay that amount and over if my efforts are awarded. Are you aware of any on this forum that are legit, price not being an issue?

I understand. I guess what I'm looking for is a method that costs more, and one of the reasons the user is selling it is because they either have other projects they make more money on or they are capped at how much they can earn on the project they're selling.

If you have $10k and don't mind it being blackhat message me.

D0nttrustm3 - April 9, 2021, 4:15 pm

Sorry, I am a professional and am not interested in blackhat activities at this time.

You won't find any whitehat methods here that can generate money quickly unless you have thousands to invest.

I see. Obviously if it is worth it I will consider it. Where would you generally find whitehat methods?

If price is not an issue, why not just setup a legitimate business or side hustle and use said money as capital? You'd better be off with that than find methods here that "work". I don't doubt the legitimacy of any money making methods here, as I've bought a few myself and I'd say some of them MIGHT work. If it's not the shady character who sells the method, it's more often the method itself being saturated that's the issue.

You want a stable money-making method here? Come up with a way to earn at least a dollar a day and sell the method here for $5. Profit.

Legitimate business, such as? A donut shop?

Point is, you're gonna get ripped off here first only to find out more than half of the methods here either don't work at all or won't work for you.

Unfortunately, minimum characters for a reply is 25

if there wasn't minimum, I would just type 2 characters - NO

ssxxl - April 10, 2021, 2:04 pm

Why would someone sell a method that earns him thousands use your fucking brain and earn your money.

Well, it could be that his earning potential for it is capped, such as one Paypal account.

If you got $7500 to invest where you'll have full control of your funds. No one can touch it and it'll grow on autopilot. Hit me up. Earning potential is minimum $100 per day. Maximum $550 per day.

Really ? This easy ?

Well, It's gambling on Bustabit using script and you can loose whole amount in minutes. Make your mind.

I see the irony in your post. Point taken :)

Liam - April 10, 2021, 2:22 pm

Sure there are, methods don't necessarily make up what you see for sale in format of a book, or tutoring, but mere initiative, intuition, for example, a method could consist of overcharging market prices to people not within the community, an example of this would be for instance, the social media section, instagram followers, and the likes, they charge $10, you charge $20, thats $10 in pocket, rinse and repeat, reach out wide and far, you catch my drift, think outside the box, its not hard.

Glad you got the point. Stay away from HF methods rather work on ONE THING and monetise the fuck out of it.

Its like you calling people to scam you here, no fucking method on this forum everyone is a scammer just be careful

rSM- - April 11, 2021, 1:06 pm

Don't buy ebooks at all lol. They are all scams no matter who tells you what. Even the more expensive ones Imfao. Don't buy.

SIM-4704770 - April 11, 2021, 1:16 pm

Well there is some, such as Instagrams method, but that costs over 500 dollars. He does have plenty of vouches on the thread and proof that it works. I would check him out. Anything under 250 that sas it can earn over 1k a day is fake.

Lorem Ipsum - April 11, 2021, 1:21 pm

A few tips to get anybody going with some kind of online hustle..

1. Find something you are good at, or something you can do. Whether it is translating content from your language (if not native English speaker) to English. Drawing cartoons. Typing documents. Doing voice overs. Run social media ads. Anything.. Cooking, just anything.

2. After step 1, you will not advertise it just anywhere. First think of people that would need, want or enjoy your content. If you can saw or whatever, new home owners will like the "free constructing tutorial". If you can talk without any 'funny' accent, do voice overs for videos or whatever. If you have some type of hobby and you are good at it, go make a YouTube / TikTok channel. Target the audience that needs you, not visa versa.

3. If you don't have any specific audience, for example you don't want to show your face. You got little time each day and you do have money.. Go scrap videos from YouTube with the community rates, those are often copyright-free and can be used (if handy/funny/useful) on TikTok (Instagram or Facebook) for views and likes. Monetise your profile by filtering your targeted niche. Puppy collars, Velcro's, Toothbrushes, whatever. Just post enough content to be seen as 'old' and not just a channel or account or whatever to keep people busy for 2 minutes. Have some quality content.

4. If you are not targeting any specific audience, make sure you post (if and you do target, still do this) on a regular basis. People unconsciously like their steady rhythms and seeing the same guy/woman/page/puppy pictures at the time they are used at it. This will trigger that "a-ha" feeling of knowing it was supposed to be there, and it is. For example around 10 AM, 2 PM, 8 PM and 1 AM. Not going too much into this

5. If you have 0 products, qualities, skills, methods, but you do have money.. pay someone to get a method you might regret because if you are seeing yourself that low, you probably won't see the opportunities or potential that another member will show you for $50, $500 or whatever. Always stay positive, keep the grind going and keep on trying. At least 1 little step a day is more than those who don't do anything.

Deadmau5 - April 11, 2021, 1:58 pm

There are several methods on here that actually work.

If I were you, I would stay away from methods that are too good to be true, that is, methods that promise a huge amount of ROI within 24 hours or something like that. Majority of those are just bs.

oop - April 11, 2021, 3:04 pm

More then likely no, not for big bucks. the reality is no one makes a million bucks and then just can't wait to tell everyone else how to do it to!

WebcamRiches_com - April 13, 2021, 12:05 am

Webcam Riches obviously works. Starting a webcam studio is a proven business model.

Teleforce - April 13, 2021, 6:06 am

%99 of the methods are complete BS and scam , tbh I can say %99.99 lol

Not necessarily, recently they sold a lq public method for 2k :D

SIM-4704770 - April 22, 2021, 6:56 am

Just to put it into better terms, there isn't a simple money method that gets you profit back instantly. Yes they can get you profit and have proof, but they aren't anymore then you would make working at a min wage job. Don't expect miracles.

Omniscient - April 22, 2021, 11:55 am

I know a member who paid $5k for a method. They have earned $30k from it so far. So that's evidence of at least one method working.

I'm sure there are some success stories but overall you're probably taking a risk that it's bullshit.

UnrealBitcoin - April 22, 2021, 4:28 pm

Lol no, I've looked into these methods on hackforums they're all shitty methods from the darknet marketplace and then resold here or something bullshit. People only have a lot of positives is because of refunds, they only give you a refund if you don't leave a negative review.

Driz - April 22, 2021, 9:43 pm

Yes, sell an ebook and market the fuck out of it. The ebook can contain horseshit, but as long as its 5$ randoms will lap it up.
