How do I join this? Where are the exclusive signals sent? Because I am in your Telegram Channel and I cannot see anything.

I post some of the trades we enter in the channel, however it's not a "signal" channel.

A premium channel is coming later this week if you're interested.

Appreciate it <3

Have a lot of requests for it but I don't want to start one without being able to give full attention to it and without users actually being able to make use of the information. That's why I'm trying to teach everyone for free :)

Excellent channel, I've joined it a few days ago actually and can say it's one of the few, no bullsh*t ones out there. Any ideas of a discord anytime soon?
