If you don't know who MrBeast is he's an American gaming youtuber that holds insane challenges with big prizes, he goes on Twitch and donated tens of thousands each video, goes to stores and buys people everything they want, gives them money, flies youtubers out to compete in challenges, they can go up to hundreds of thousands, to a million dollars, he's given away an island, promoted a fundraiser to plant 20MILLION trees, he gives away more money than he makes, and right now and for a while he's been picking random subscribers to compete in these challenges as well, one of them won a million dollars. I just love his videos and the genuine person he is, you can't really make the guy look bad, he's always happy, smiling and spreading the love.

His videos are very cheesy but the kids like him so he gets crazy views

Yea, he does have some boring vids but out of all he puts out I think it's overall great. Yea kids love him but there's millions of adults that like him a lot too. I'd be willing to bet adults (18+) are a close majority of his audience. His gaming channel only has like 17mil subs and the channel he does most his give aways has almost 60mil.

Solomun5 - April 11, 2021, 1:38 pm

Mr Beast is a big FAKE. Most of his big giveaways are fake and staged, please don't argue with me.

Rev - April 11, 2021, 1:40 pm

Nah. I respect how far he's come, what he does, and his status. But, doesn't mean I need to keep up on his life or antics.

oop - April 11, 2021, 2:14 pm

HAHA

NO

There's SO much proof he isn't fake, plus, he donates tens of thousands to twitch streamers and flies youtubers out for challenges, you think every single one of them is just in on it for fun?

You really are a fckin idiot.

Splexor - April 11, 2021, 3:39 pm

Never subscribed but I see his video recommendations alot on my feed

dave soiutig - April 11, 2021, 9:33 pm

The giveaways are thinly veiled tax dodges.

You really are a fckin idiot.

He donates $5k - $10k to some twitch streamers. He has videos giving away $1million and its not only 1 video doing this. If you think this ain't staged you live in some imaginary world.

I bet man, he seems pretty damn smart, some of his stuff is somewhat clickbait but it's generally all pretty good. I think it's funny how he made like 400k in videos and didn't even post them lol
