Are you old enough to have gone to a highschool reunion. Would you go if invited?

Would 100% not go to one. Fuck HS.

I would love to and always enjoying to go on a reunion but nowadays that the pandemic is still around I guess I will pass if being invited lol

I dropped out of high school a reason, I don't wanna see anyone from that hell hole. The one person I kept in contact with is all I need.

shreder - April 10, 2021, 11:11 pm

I do talk to my hs friends a good few close ones at least. The rest I could care less about tbh.

Same here. 10 years already after I finished HS.

We were the only class of 20+ people who hated each other lol, while other classes used to go together on trips, to clubs etc.

After HS finished, half of us blocked each other on social media too ?? so yeah fuck my HS class and fuck HS in general.

grainy - April 11, 2021, 2:59 am

Nah, barely kept in contact with anyone plus I am in a whole different country now.

Can - April 11, 2021, 3:29 am

Couple people from my school became feds so deffo ain't going to no reunion

Skisuit - April 11, 2021, 3:40 am

Was invited to a few gatherings but I always stood them up, it's a complete waste of time to attend such gatherings in my opinion

A Nobody - April 11, 2021, 5:00 am

I'd never bother going to a HS reunion. What's the point? If I cared about the people I'd have kept in touch with them.

TB12 - April 11, 2021, 8:32 am

I'd never return to my highschool, awful place

Aeowulf - April 11, 2021, 9:54 am

I'm 16 years out of high school and haven't been to one.

shakur123 - April 11, 2021, 10:34 am

Yeah i would sure go, its nice to remember old times with good friends of that period of time. I would only make sure that some of my friends attend

-Nerotic- - April 11, 2021, 10:39 am

I would for sure! so much about me has changed and i think it would be interesting reactions

Justin - April 11, 2021, 10:41 am

I would attend it. Compared to what I've read here HS was super nice for me, had a very nice group of class-mates. I'd love to reunite together. We still do that from time to time :)

We go to clubs whatever, but with the pandemic not so much

Utility - April 11, 2021, 10:41 am

I would love to go to see how all the losers remained losers.

This sums up my feelings entirely

Carrot - April 11, 2021, 3:41 pm

50/50

Would like to attend just to see what the scummy people are doing now but would rather not, im done with school.

Nate - April 11, 2021, 11:34 pm

I probably would go for like 20 mins then cut

We had high school reunion last December 2019, we planned to have it again in December 2020 but Covid comes.
