Thread: Which vpn should I use to portforward so I can set up a RAT?

fanatic50000 - April 15, 2021, 9:52 am

The title says it , what do you recommend me?

Fire_Star - April 15, 2021, 10:43 am nvpn from nvpn.net, Its The Best for Ratting and Portforwarding.

I see many members using nvpn. give it a try.

fanatic50000 - April 15, 2021, 11:47 am

For some kind of reason , my credit card won't work when buying nvpn , i've heard about crypticvpn , is it good?

UnderBot - April 15, 2021, 9:43 pm

I wouldn't really recommend a VPN for setting up a RAT. It's best to keep as many files off your own computer as much as possible.

Try nVPN, it has everything you'd need to see the RAT in action.

Furiosa - April 15, 2021, 11:17 pm

i would recommend ProtonVPN , it is located in Schweiz. but doesn't support Portforwarding.

PitbullT0r - April 16, 2021, 2:22 am

I suggest nVPN, very high quality.

Smoky - April 16, 2021, 4:34 am

Without hesitation Mullvad vpn !

Eladictocosity - April 16, 2021, 9:50 am

You can use nVPN for any port forward concern.

That is why you simply buy a vps and create your own personal vpn. Takes a few minutes to setup and is just as cheap as purchasing a vpn from someone else.

You have to poke around. I won't give you my source but look for VPS providers in iceland, romania etc. Ask them what their policy is on the subject.

Portmap.io | This is the best and its free

jhon_moses - April 20, 2021, 4:09 am

Hey mate, You can try OSVPN Services as it's good & affordable.

Plans start from 1$ only & have multiply payment way. Those are BTC, Paypal, ETH & XMR

every plan have port-forwarding feature <3
