I want to hear the people tell me about
crazy freebies and great deals they've found on here, and I also want people to tell me about the biggest scams, close calls, and worst encounters they've personally had on here since their creation date.
No trolls genuine experiences ~

Honestly the most memorable bad thing for me is a kid charging back $1 for a mc account. Imagine being that broke. Just -3'd him (Was back in rep days.) and went on with life.

Not many memorable good experiences tbh.

paid $500 back in 2018 and not heard from him and he is still on the forum and making a killing by scamming others.

back then there were no contracts.

I still remember getting a decent amount of money from Stellar referrals back when I first joined,
probably the most I made money online asap.

Mine was exposing a big multi acconter that scammed thousands of dollars
You can find it in the wiki, if my page is still there

I've had several people I've opened scam reports.
Most of them got resolved if I remember correctly, but still not really fun.

Probably when someone tried scamming me on discord by not accepting the contract and not sending funds all sus

Maybe when a fugger tried to scam me on discord. He had a thread in the exchange section, so I posted a reply saying that if he can exchange $400 pp to btc. he definitely saw that and sent me a pm on discord and told me to send the amount (deal offsite) I've insisted that he accepts the contract. but he kept on saying that couldn't login. he was reputable, I was going to fall in his scamming trap but luckily I didn't and others unfortunately did
