Thread: Long term SIM renting

Baphomet - April 18, 2021, 9:55 am

No idea if this is even the right forum, but here goes...

I have access to a large amount of real US sim cards and wondering if there is a market for long term renting such numbers.

They can ONLY receive SMS - and from pretty much any site that sends our SMS messages for verification.

1. Is there a market for this
2. What should monthly cost be

Not selling now, just checking if it's viable!

It cant. Only normal messages and OTP's.

I might have another solution for short codes
