How many do you have? I only have Vegeta, lmao.

A good friend of mine IRL is obsessed with collecting them and has like 50 of them stacked on his wall in their new house. I remember one day we went around to a bunch of different stores trying to find the rare ones because the employees will hide them at the back, lol.

Jelly!

I usually order them. Some get damaged on the way. This is the only reason I throw away the box.
