Thread: Don't Deal with !Hackon! UID 1509983 -- HE OPENS DEAL DISPUTE WITH NO REASON

So short situation. I sold him a method. I told him that $300 investment will bring him between $200-300 in profit.

He used my method for 1 day and cashed out $135 in profit. He got $200 more pending to be cashed out.

He also lies that other of my customers will open a dispute against me. (which is a lie) + he leaked my method after earning over $300 profit with it.

Here is a proof of him confirming his profit

He also now leaked my method

I mean I'm not saying he's right or anything, but if he says your method doesn't work, you literally have a second deal dispute from 4 hours prior to his also saying it doesn't work.

But bro, the first person is new member with 3 posts who claims this is an exploit and not a method.

The guy that opened the dispute - hackon deposited $300, cashed out $430 (130 profit) and got over $200 more to cashout but it will take 1 week more (site policy) and he opens a dispute against me and leaks my method. What is hard to explain, I literally added all the proof.

He also lies that other users will open deal disputes against me.

Bro I've always sold expensive money making methods that work and made thousands to members of this community. I made money to this guy and he disputed me and leaked my method. What can I do that he is abusing me ?

This is my convo with him where he says he didn't leak any details of my method.

That's why I'm saying y'all need to stop selling/buying money making methods on HF because it's genuinely hard to tell who's at fault, things like this are bound to happen, it's not worth it.

What hurts me bro is that, I understand if he didn't made money or something -he would be free to complain which is normal. But he made profits and got more profits to make and he disputed me and leaked my method.

He's just talking out of his ass. Guy didn't even leak his method(which was basically gambling & trying to manipulate wager requirements) I looked on his thread and couldn't find one person saying the method works.

I'm waiting for my customer who bought my $500 copy (and has most B-rating from them all to come home and leave the vouch)
