Wow.....that is just.....terrible. Way to go Google.... OOF

Silkroad - May 8, 2021, 5:50 pm

I'm not defending Google's algorithm but it might be Fox 9's fault. Who knows what tags they put in their video?

For what we know, they could've put "harambe" as a tag.

And since both are "shocking" videos with similar comments or similar viewers, that might also be the reason for the algorithm to suggest that video.

But who knows, maybe Google's at fault since they did it in the past already (your article).

I highly doubt they put a harambe tag

Beherit - May 8, 2021, 5:55 pm

How did they even get that in the algorithm? That's fucked up.

Cooligan - May 8, 2021, 5:56 pm

Just in case anyone thinks this is a troll post, no, this is actually real.

Yeah me too but the video only shows when searching for "harambe footage" and not "harambe" so it might be the footage tag.

Search for "harambe footage" and you'll see it.

i think it all depends on the tags that have been linked in the video to popup when you search a keyword.

Larry - May 9, 2021, 5:58 am

That's fucking hilarious lol

Pawnhub - May 10, 2021, 3:02 am

So you telling me algorithms are racist? We should ban them, sue anyone who has used them, label who ever made a algorithm in their life white supremacists and get them fired from all their jobs.

A Nobody - May 10, 2021, 7:25 am

That's a gigantic yikes that those are being associated together.

Polymath - May 10, 2021, 7:27 am

Sierra-117 - May 10, 2021, 10:58 am

Wow, strike #124242424 for automated algorithms I guess, that's terrible.

b?xxy - May 10, 2021, 11:02 am

It's the fourth result for me, imagine.

Dannisthethird - May 10, 2021, 11:11 am

Welcome to the internet lmao,

I think maybe the algorithm did this because it considered both George and Harambe as victims?
